DEMOCRACY AT WORK

Alex Padilla, California Secretary of State, invites businesses, government agencies, and nonprofit organizations to join our nonpartisan Democracy at Work program. Partner with the Secretary of State's office to encourage greater civic participation through increased voter registration and voter turnout.

You can play an important role by reaching out to your employees, customers, and members and encouraging them to register and vote. Simply sign up to receive nonpartisan outreach tools, including a link to our online voter registration tool featured on the Democracy at Work website. It is quick and easy and it's good for our state. Please join me and together we can strengthen our democracy.
