Hi Deirdre, as of August 22, 2007, the new constitution for the Superhappy Evolution & Neuroscience Party is:

1) Every government employee and public school child shall salute the United Nations and the United Nations flag and the United Nations shall become the final authority for all governments!

All government employees and elected government officials shall salute the United Nations flag. This includes all teachers, professors, public school students, police officers, military soldiers, officers, and personnel, FBI agents, Homeland Security employees, the President of the United States, elected officials in the United States Congress, elected officials in all fifty states, the Supreme Court justices, all judges and district attorneys in all fifty states, and we shall strive to do likewise for all elected officials and leaders and all government employees and students in all of countries of the world!

The United Nations flag logo shall be on every police car, fire truck, military vehicle, government flight and space vehicle and all government vehicles within the United States and we shall strive to have this on all government vehicles in every country of the world!

The United Nations flag shall be standing side by side with the United States flag. It shall be placed by the United States flag in every government location!

The United Nations shall become the final authority for the United States leadership and all United States military personnel shall salute the United Nations as their ultimate government authority.

The United Nations shall replace the Presidents executive powers over the military and shall also replace the powers of Congress to declare war and shall also "be above" the Supreme Court's decision powers!

2) Every woman shall live like a queen or a princess with robotic servants that do all of the work and pay all of the bills and every man shall live like a king or a prince with robotic servants that do all of the work and pay all of the bills. It shall be a requirement to teach, study and create research centers starting from grade levels K-12 and a requirement class in universities for artificial intelligence robots that shall replace all human labor and all human doctors, especially medical doctors, and these robots shall be constantly upgraded and programmed to work millions of times faster than humans and create millions of times more "actual wealth and production" so everyone lives like a millionaire or billionaire queen or princess and/or king or prince with robotic servants.

3) The purpose of government is to make everyone in society as happy and as neuroscientifically and psychologically satisfied as possible. The government has to become "EVOLUTION OF EMOTIONAL NEUROSCIENCE" that makes people happy. In other words, we shall use neuroscientific methods to evolve into a happy world like putting huge happy faces on every street corner in every city and the happy faces shall be technologically designed to say "Hi, be happy. Have a happy day!" or some other statement that is very happy and use other evolving methods to create a superhappy world. The government shall use every neuroscientifically evolving method possible to create the happiest environments ever and create the happiest, most intelligent, most scientifically evolving population ever!

4) Everyone shall be required to get a PhD (especially in a specialty of artificial intelligence robotics), an MD, and/or a law degree so we can create the most intelligence society ever,

5) All jails and prisons shall be turned into maximum security universities and maximum security mental health centers designed to make the prisoners "superhappy" and superintelligent with PhDs, MDs, and/or law degrees.

6) The government shall give tax-free incentives and subsidies for corporations, business owners, universities, and inventors to mass produce:

1- The flying car

2- The flying bicycle

3- The flying motorcycle

4- The flying broom (like the brooms that witches use In movies)

5 - The flying wheelchair (so the handicapped can enjoy flying around)

6-- The flying cane and/or walker (so seniors can enjoy flying around)

7 - The flying backpacks for kids

8 - All sorts of flying vehicles.

9 - Flying vehicles shall be upgraded so all flying vehicles can fly into outer space as possible so we may start colonies and settlements in outer space.

(Face it, driving in traffic sucks!!!!!!)

7) Native Americans, because they have been slaughtered and virtually exterminated through genocidal methods, including deliberate germ warfare, shall never have to pay any taxes on their reservations to the states they are located in and they have to get at least "TWICE" the land back that they currently have because that land got stolen away from them. In other words, their reservations have to at least double in size!

We shall also support a Confederation of Native America or some form of tribal unity that focuses on a better unity of the Native American tribes.

8) Many psychological studies have proven that many people feel more comfortable with their own racial type. So, to help create a peaceful world, we should support movements to create:

A confederation or a unity of white nations (nations with large white populations) of the world into one nation or a confederation that is very much like the European Union. For example, let's create a confederation with Canada, the United States, the European Union, Australia, New Zealand, Russia, Latin American nations, and all of the other "white" nations within the areas of the European Union and Russia.

A confederation or a unity of nations of Hispanic, Hispanic Native American, and Native American nations (nations with large populations of Hispanics, Hispanic Native Americans, and Native Americans) into one nation, like Mexico, the United States, Canada, Central America, and all of the South American nations into one nation.

A confederation or a unity of black nations (nations with large black populations) of the world into one nation, like sub-Saharan Africa, the Caribbean nations, the United States, Brazil, and other nations in the Americas with large black populations.

A confederation or a unity of East Asian nations (nations with large East Asian populations) of the world into one nation, like China, Japan, North Korea, South Korea, the Philippines, Taiwan, Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, Thailand, Singapore and other East Asian nations into one nation.

A confederation or a unity of Middle Eastern nations and South Asian nations (nations with large Middle Eastern and South Asian populations (many people think they look very much alike)) of the world into one nation, like India, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Iran, Egypt, Libya, Morocco, Israel, Pakistan, Palestine, Jordan and other Middle Eastern nations into one nation.

Indigenous nations have all been "tremendously discriminated against in the past, so there should be a confederation or a unity, at least unity treaties, to unite the indigenous Native Americans of North and South America, the indigenous Aborigines of Australia, the Indigenous people of New Zealand, the indigenous tribes of Africa, the Indigenous tribes in Europe (like the Lapps), the indigenous people in Russia, the Indigenous tribal people in East Asia, South Asia, the Middle East and all indigenous tribal people around the world (they have to unite to protect themselves against any senseless further aggression and racist/ethnic oppression by other majorities that have invaded their habitat).

9) All public high schools shall provide education on being mothers and fathers with babies, even if they want to have many babies, like three, four, five babies or more (babies are cute) and they shall also provide lesbian, gay, transgendered, bisexual, heterosexual, and atheistic lifestyle education! They shall also teach safe sex classes!

10) When there is more than one Superhappy Evolution & Neuroscience Party candidate that wants to run for a particular public office, we require that only one candidate may be nominated for each office through an election process to increase our chances of winning the election and that we vote for the candidate in a Superhappy Evolution & Neuroscience Party only election primary. (Face it, it is absurd to have more than one candidate running for an office because it decreases our chances of winning.)

11) Supermodel type bodies for all women and muscular bodies for all men. We must pass laws demanding the building of fitness centers and subsidies to current fitness centers so all men and women will have extremely fit bodies. No one has to pay to work out. The government pays for all women to have bodies that look like supermodel type bodies and pay for all men so they can have muscular type bodies with physical trainers provided to both men and women. Motivational trainers shall also be provided and the government shall provide wake up calls and rides to the fitness centers if they do not have rides.

This applies to all males from thirteen to fifty-five and to all females from thirteen to fifty-five.

Males and females can choose to have this and it is not a requirement that they have to have it.

Face it, it would be make males feel good if they have muscular bodies and they can walk around with their shirts off and it would make women feel good if they have bodies that look like supermodels and they can walk around in bikinis and attractive dresses.

12) Let's ban all cigarettes and alcohol! They are unhealthy and they should be banned if we want to create a healthy society! If it is too difficult to ban cigarettes and alcohol completely, let's at least ban them in stores and leave them legal in casinos, bars, and restaurants so they will be kept from the presence of children when they go to stores with their parents!

13) We are living in the 21st century. Anyone can marry whoever they want. All types of marriages shall be legalized, including straight heterosexual marriages, lesbian marriages, transgendered marriages, and polygamy, including straight polygamy, lesbian polygamy (what if she wants to marry more than one girl), gay polygamy (what if he wants to marry more than one man), transgendered polygamy, bisexual polygamy (what if she wants to marry a woman and a man or wants to marry several girls and several guys).

14) Automatic citizenship for all Hispanic / Native American immigrants and no more border patrol. The border patrol has hurt too many peoples' feelings and has wrongfully detained and arrested hardworking people that just come into this country to work hard and make an honest living. Therefore, the border patrol should be declared illegal and banned. Most of these Hispanic immigrants, actually, almost all of them, are actually Native Americans and/or have lots of Native American blood that was here before the Europeans arrived and should have automatic citizenship.

15) Through developments in genetic engineering of the egg and sperm mixture, (this is not to be used in any sexually perverted way, it is to be used in a purely scientific, neuroscientific, and psychologically valid way), every male shall be guaranteed a large penis by their parents (face it, it will make you feel good if you had a large penis to "show off" to your girlfriend or wife. Now, this might sound a little bit

"outrageous" or "ridiculous," but what if your child's penis is too small when he grows up to be an adult!
It will subconsciously hurt his feelings and what if the girl is a virgin and she marries this guy
and to her regret, finds out that his penis is too small and she is not satisfied! With our genetic engineering law, every male can be guaranteed a large penis, like 12" or longer or whatever the parents decide! Face it, it will make the males feel happy and the females feel happy! It will also be "economic discrimination" if only rich parents can afford this for their children. All males must be guaranteed a large penis that will be free for the parents and paid for by the government!

Every female can be guaranteed D or DD or C size breasts or whatever size the parents want, and every female and male can be guaranteed perfect eyesights or enhanced, genetically engineered superhuman eagle eyes to where they can see an animal a kilometer away, perfect hearing or superhuman/animal hearing like bats to where they can hear a pin drop, healthy, tall, muscular bodies
for males (you can guarantee that your child is 6'3" or 6'00" or 6'5" or whatever height you want) and healthy,
skinny or voluptuous model type bodies for women (we can guarantee that people will never get fat), and you can even design your child's eyes to be any color that you want.

Genetic engineering can even make sure that your babies will never be mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or physically deformed!

16) We all want nice homes with lots of property!

Unless they make it a 100% requirement in grades k-12 and in universities to make:

a) Artificial intelligence robots that replace humans and work millions of times faster than humans so they can build us large, homes and mansions for free so if we want a house we just tell the robots and the robots will build us a huge house or mansion in about an hour or less because they work millions of times faster than people and:

b) Personal flying spaceships so we can all hop in our flying spacecars and fly to the moon and to different planets so we can start settlements on different planets and get the technology developed to where we can put oxygen atmospheres, temperature controls, and biological life and oceans on the moon and different planets so we can turn the moon and different planets into tropical paradises and since outer space has an infinite number of lands and planets, then each and every one of us shall own thousands and millions of acres in outer space.

Then, as blacks of the world and as black Africans, as Hispanics of the Americas and Hispanic Native Americans of

of the world, as East Asians of the world, as south Asians of the world, as Native Americans of the world, as lesbians, gays, and transgendered of the world, and even the many, many whites that are not homeowners that will join us; we, who tremendously outnumber the whites in Australia, Canada, the United States, and Russia by at least thirty to one or so (it is a tremendously high number that we outnumber them with);

shall declare these lands, homes, and property illegal as they were illegally taken by whites through illegal and racist aggression against all of us; shall take the land and divide it up amongst ourselves.

If these whites are against us, they would be foolish because we outnumber and outsmart them tremendously and will easily "win" in any sort of cold war.

If the European Union or any white neighboring states are foolish enough to step in on the sides of the whites, then we will easily "win" because we outnumber and "outsmart" them by at least ten to one or so (it is a high number that we outnumber them with)!

Depending on how we evolve this situation, then we might ask the whites in the United States and/or maybe Canada and/or maybe Russia to join us against Australia, or maybe ask the whites in the United States and Canada to unite against Australia and Russia, or maybe ask the whites in the United States and Russia to unite against Canada and Australia, or, we might just decide to unite against all of the whites in Australia, Canada, Russia, and the United States because we tremendously outnumber the whites by at least thirty to one or so if we do unite against all the whites!

In other words, if we unite against all of the whites, then we shall gain more land and property and all of us have been discriminated by the white homeowners!

Many of our countries that are very overcrowded, like countries in Asia, Africa, Central America and South America, the Caribbean Islands, island nations in the Pacific, the Atlantic, and the Indian ocean, can tremendously increase its size, maybe by even 100% or more to settle their high populations.

This will be an appropriate global legislative act for global population relief!
