RE: Website: Best Practices of Elections Officials

Last year with your help, we established a "Best Practices of Elections Officials" web page <http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/best-practices.htm> for counties to share ideas on election-related topics.

The web page is designed to be a sharing tool for all of us to learn from one another, and so people who visit the page can learn more about elections and election practices in California.

We are in the process of expanding the web page to include additional information about the "best practices" for the various types of election practices and procedures we highlight.

Once again, I'd be interested in getting feedback from you and information and programs that you would like to see posted on the "Best Practices of Elections Officials" page. Please send them to Jana Lean at jana.lean@sos.ca.gov. If you have any questions, please contact me, or Jana at (916) 657-2166.
