RE: Statewide Direct Primary: Decline to State and Central Committee Notice

The following parties have filed the requisite statement notifying the Secretary of State that they have adopted a party rule permitting unaffiliated voters to request their party ballot in the June 8, 2010, Statewide Direct Primary to participate in the primary election for partisan offices:

- Democratic Party, letter dated January 7, 2010
- Republican Party, letter dated January 25, 2010

Please validate unaffiliated voter signatures for Democratic and Republican candidates signatures in-lieu petitions, starting from the date the parties adopted the rule.

The following parties have also notified the Secretary of State that they will be conducting their Central Committee Elections:

- Democratic Party, letter dated January 7, 2010
- American Independent Party, letter dated January 19, 2010
- Peace and Freedom Party, letter dated January 22, 2010
- Republican Party, letter dated January 25, 2010
- Libertarian Party, letter dated January 25, 2010
- Green Party, letter dated January 25, 2010

A copy of all six qualified parties letters have been attached.

Dear Secretary Bowen:

Please be advised that the California Democratic Party hereby adopts Elections Code sections 13102(b)-(c) for the June 8, 2010 Statewide Primary, allowing unaffiliated registered voters to request a Democratic ballot and vote in the primary of the California Democratic Party.

Please note, however, that unaffiliated voters are not allowed to vote in Democratic Central Committee races.

Sincerely,

John Burton

Re: Decline to State (DTS) Letter

Dear Secretary of State Debra Bowen,

In compliance with Senate Bill 28, I, the Chairman of the American Independent Party, Markham Robinson, do hereby certify that the State Central Committee of the American Independent Party voted on January 13, 2010 to not allow Decline to State Voters to do any of the following:

1. Vote for American Independent Party candidates in any Primary Election;
2. Vote for American Independent Party County Central Committee candidates in any Primary Election;
3. Vote for Delegates to any American Independent Party Convention;
4. Vote for Electors for President or Vice President (usually called Electoral College electors) or Presidential Nominating Committee candidates;
5. Sign or circulate any petition for Signatures in Lieu for American Independent Party candidates;
6. Sign or circulate any nominating petitions for American Independent Party candidates;

All references to voting above apply equally to Absent Voters as well as to those appearing at polling places to vote.

In summary the American Independent Party chooses to prohibit any non-American Independent Party voter from participating in the above activities. In common parlance we choose to Close our Primary and other specifically American Independent functions listed above to any but American Independent Party voters.

We hereby Close to the participation of any voter who is not registered an American Independent any function previously open to Decline to State voters.

Under penalty of perjury I solemnly affirm, certify and swear to the truth of all the foregoing.

Markham Robinson, Chairman of the American Independent Party State Central Committee

Dear Ms. Mendez,

This letter is to inform you of two decisions of the Peace and Freedom Party State Central Committee in regard to the 8 June 2010 Primary Election:

- 1) We will be conducting our central committee elections as part of the Primary Election;
and
- 2) We will not permit voters who decline to state a political party to participate in our Primary Election.

As the deadline for your receipt of this letter is approaching, kindly please notify me by e-mail that this letter has been received, and will be acted upon.

Sincerely,

Kevin Akin, State Chair,

Dear Ms. Pasquale and Ms. Mendez:

This is to clarify that the Bylaws of the California Republican Party permit decline-to-state voters to participate in the Consolidated Direct Primary Election for all partisan elective offices that will be on the ballot at the June 8, 2010 Consolidated Direct Primary Election.

The only, current exclusion from offices subject to this permissive bylaw provision are for President of the United States (which will not appear on this ballot) and members of Republican County Central Committees.

I hope this clarifies the matter and answers your questions.

Very truly yours,

Charles H. Bell, Jr.

Re: California Republican Party Statement re: Decline to State Voter Participation

Dear Secretary Bowen:

On behalf of the California Republican Party, whose Chairman Ron Nehring has authorized me to submit this statement, the California Republican Party's rules provide the following with respect to "decline to state" voters' participation in its primary elections:

(1) The Party's bylaws, Art. I, section 1.04(A), prohibit "decline to state" voters from participating in regular elections for California Republican Party County Central Committee members.

Please feel free to contact the undersigned if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,
