

Attention Students!

MyVote California Student Mock Election October 11, 2016

Get ready to hit the campaign trail this fall with students from all over California who are voting in the MyVote California Student Mock Election, on Tuesday, October 11.

Secretary of State Alex Padilla and State Superintendent of Public Instruction Tom Torlakson are hosting the MyVote California Student Mock Election to give you a chance to make your voice heard on the candidates and issues that affect you and your family. Once the votes are counted, you can compare your choices to those of your peers around the state when the results are posted on the Secretary of State's website.

YOU Decide!

Do you think it's time you told the world who you think should be President of the United States? Want to have your say on the issues voters will decide in the November General Election?

What Can YOU do?

This fall, students like you can help turn the MyVote California Student Mock Election into a powerful display of student opinion on the people who are competing for the right to lead us, and on the issues that will shape the future of California and the nation.

Just show this "Attention Students" flyer to your favorite teachers – and let them know you want your school to participate. With your involvement, every student at your school will be heard this exciting election season.
