Effective Date of Statewide Ballot Measures

“An initiative...approved by a majority of votes thereon takes effect the day after the election unless the measure provides otherwise... If provisions of two or more measures approved at the same election conflict, those [provisions] of the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.”
See California Constitution Article II, Section 10.

“A proposed [legislative] amendment or revision shall be submitted to the electors and if approved by a majority of votes thereon takes effect the day after the election unless the measure provides otherwise. If a provision of two or more measures approved at the same election conflict, those [provisions] of the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.”
See California Constitution Article XVIII, Section 4.

Bond proposals submitted to the electors by the Legislature also become effective upon approval by a majority of votes thereon.
See California Constitution Article XVI, Section 1.
