“An initiative...approved by a majority of votes thereon takes effect the day after the election unless the measure provides otherwise... If provisions of two or more measures approved at the same election conflict, those [provisions] of the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.”
California Constitution, Article II, Section 10.

“A proposed [legislative] amendment or revision shall be submitted to the electors and if approved by a majority of votes thereon takes effect the day after the election unless the measure provides otherwise. If a provision of two or more measures approved at the same election conflict, those [provisions] of the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.”
California Constitution, Article XVIII, Section 4.

Bond proposals submitted to the electors by the Legislature also become effective upon approval by a majority of votes thereon.
California Constitution, Article XVI, Section 1.
