

JUSTICES OF THE CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT

An election will be held on November 7, 2006, pursuant to Article VI, § 16(a) of the Constitution of the State of California. The justices listed on the following page will stand for election to a full term of twelve years if this election coincides with the expiration of their term. If not standing for a full term, the term for which they are running is noted.

Justices of the California Supreme Court may file a Declaration of Candidacy to succeed themselves in their present office. This declaration is filed with the Secretary of State between July 16, 2006 and August 15, 2006. The declaration may be in the form of a letter, may be on office stationery, must say that the justice is a candidate to succeed himself or herself, and must be signed by the justice. Unless instructed otherwise, the Secretary of State will certify the candidate's name as signed on the declaration of candidacy.

In addition to filing the declaration, each justice must pay a nonrefundable filing fee of two percent of the first year's salary for the office pursuant to Elections Code § 8103(a). The fee for filing the declaration of candidacy shall be paid to the Secretary of State.

In lieu of the payment of the filing fee, each justice may submit a petition containing signatures of 10,000 registered voters pursuant to Elections Code § 8106(a)(3). The signatures submitted may cover all or a prorated portion of the filing fee. That portion of the filing fee not covered by signatures must be paid in full before the declaration of candidacy may be filed.

Each justice may obtain the petition for signatures in lieu of the filing fee from the appropriate county elections official from June 1, 2006 through July 31, 2006. The last day to file these petitions is July 31, 2006. Any registered voter may sign such a petition for any and for each justice. If the petition is circulated in more than one county, the justice shall submit the signatures to the county elections official of the county in which the petition was circulated.

NOTE: If a justice standing for confirmation does not receive any campaign contributions and the only expenditure made will be the justice's personal funds for a filing fee, then the justice is not required to file Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) Forms 501 and 410. However, any justice who will be on the ballot must file campaign disclosure statements. For information about the campaign disclosure provisions, call the FPPC at (916) 322-5660 or the Secretary of State's Political Reform Division at (916) 653-6224.

JUSTICES OF THE CALIFORNIA COURTS OF APPEAL

An election will be held on November 7, 2006, pursuant to Article VI, § 16(a) of the Constitution of the State of California. The justices listed on the following page will stand for election to a full term of twelve years if this election coincides with the expiration of their term, or to the remainder of the unexpired term of four or eight years.

Justices of the California Courts of Appeal may file a declaration of candidacy to succeed themselves in their present office. The declaration of candidacy is filed with the Secretary of State between July 16, 2006 and August 15, 2006. The declaration may be in the form of a letter, may be on office stationery, must say that the justice is a candidate to succeed himself or herself, and must be signed by the justice. Unless instructed otherwise, the Secretary of State will certify the candidate's name as signed on the declaration of candidacy.

In addition to filing the declaration, each justice must pay a nonrefundable filing fee of one percent of the first year's salary for the office pursuant to Elections Code § 8103(a). The fee for filing the declaration of candidacy shall be paid to the Secretary of State.

In lieu of the payment of the filing fee, each justice may submit a petition containing signatures of registered voters pursuant to Elections Code § 8106(a)(4). The signatures submitted may cover all or a prorated portion of the filing fee. That portion of the filing fee not covered by signatures must be paid in full before the declaration of candidacy may be filed.

Each justice may obtain the petition for signatures in lieu of the filing fee from the appropriate county elections official from June 1, 2006 through July 31, 2006. The last day to file these petitions is July 31, 2006. Any registered voter may sign such a petition for any and for each justice. If the petition is circulated in more than one county, the justice shall submit the signatures to the county elections official of the county in which the petition was circulated.

NOTE: If a justice standing for confirmation does not receive any campaign contributions and the only expenditure made will be the justice's personal funds for a filing fee, then the justice is not required to file Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) Forms 501 and 410. However, any justice who will be on the ballot must file campaign disclosure statements. For information about the campaign disclosure provisions, call the FPPC at (916) 322-5660 or the Secretary of State's Political Reform Division at 653-6224 .
