* Under the Top Two Candidate Open Primary Act, the Secretary of State is required to provide the political party preference history for the preceding 10 years for candidates for voter-nominated offices. The information above was provided by candidates on their Declaration of Candidacy forms. If a candidate provided more than 10 years of political party preference history, that information is not included on this page. If a candidate provided voter registration information outside of California, that information is not included on this page. As of January 2011, candidates who were previously identified as Decline-To-State or DTS are now identified as No Party Preference. If candidates identified themselves as Decline-To-State, DTS, DS, or Independent on their Declaration of Candidacy forms, those designations have been changed to "No Party Preference" on this page. Two previously qualified political parties, identified by candidates on their Declaration of Candidacy forms, have lost their qualified status; the provided party information has not been changed and is included on this page.

Abel Guillen	Democratic	Alameda	2002-2012

* Under the Top Two Candidate Open Primary Act, the Secretary of State is required to provide the political party preference history for the preceding 10 years for candidates for voter-nominated offices. The information above was provided by candidates on their Declaration of Candidacy forms. If a candidate provided more than 10 years of political party preference history, that information is not included on this page. If a candidate provided voter registration information outside of California, that information is not included on this page. As of January 2011, candidates who were previously identified as Decline-To-State or DTS are now identified as No Party Preference. If candidates identified themselves as Decline-To-State, DTS, DS, or Independent on their Declaration of Candidacy forms, those designations have been changed to "No Party Preference" on this page. Two previously qualified political parties, identified by candidates on their Declaration of Candidacy forms, have lost their qualified status; the provided party information has not been changed and is included on this page.
