

Certification Status of Accessible Voting Equipment

Vendor Name	Voting System Name	Federal Qualification Status	State Certification Status	Status of Prototype
DRE/Touchscreen Equipment with AVVPAT
Diebold Elections Systems, Inc.	AccuVote-TSx	Expects to receive federal qualification by the 1st Quarter of 2005	Expects to apply for Certification in the 1st Quarter of 2005	Available for Examination
Elections Systems & Software (ES&S)	iVotronic	Expects to enter federal testing in the 2nd Quarter of 2005	Expects to apply for Certification in the 2nd Quarter of 2005	Available for Examination but anticipates substantial changes
Hart Intercivic	eSlate	Expects to enter federal testing in the 2nd Quarter of 2005	Expects to apply for Certification in the 3rd Quarter of 2005	Anticipated Prototype will be available for examination in the 1st Quarter of 2005
Sequoia Voting Systems	AVC Edge *	Received Federal Qualification	Conditionally Certified in California	Available for Examination
Non-DRE Accessible Equipment
Elections Systems & Software (ES&S)	AutoMARK	Expects to receive federal qualification by the 1st Quarter of 2005	Expects to apply for Certification in the 1st Quarter of 2005	Available for Examination

*Note: The Sequoia AVC Edge equipment with the AVVPAT component is scheduled to be heard at the Voting Systems & Procedure Panel meeting on January 20, 2005, and may receive non-conditional certification at that time.