Description of discrepancies noted during manual tally:

Vote by Mail Batch 415 Ballots Cast Discrepancies:

Contest Affected	Discrepancy	Ballot Type
United States Senator - Full Term James Bradley	The ballot scanner counted a mark as a vote for James Bradley. During the manual count, it was determined that it should have been counted as an overvote. Count results were updated to reduce James Bradley's overall votes from 601 to 600.	Republican 560-7
United States Senator - Full Term Steve Garvey	The ballot scanner read the contest as an overvote because two boxes were filled in. During adjudication, it was left as an overvote. It was determined that the voter intended to vote for Steve Garvey during the manual count. Because the voter clearly marked what vote they intended to cast. Count results were updated to increase Steve Garvey's overall votes from 8,078 to 8,079.	Republican 410-5
Proposition 1	The ballot scanner could not read a light pen mark and counted one ballot as an undervote. During the manual count, it was determined that the voter intended to vote "Yes." Count results were updated to increase "Yes" votes from 5,894 to 5,895. Undervotes decreased from 718 to 717.	Republican 560-7

No other discrepancies were found during the manual count.
