

Governor

- As the state's chief executive officer, oversees most state departments and agencies, and appoints judges.
  - Proposes new laws, approves or vetoes legislation, and submits the annual state budget to the Legislature.
  - Mobilizes and directs state resources during emergencies.

The views and opinions expressed by the candidates are their own and do not represent the views and opinions of the Secretary of State's office. The order of the statements was determined by randomized drawing. Statements on this page were supplied by the candidates and have not been checked for accuracy by any official agency. Each statement was voluntarily submitted and paid for by the candidate. Candidates who did not submit statements could otherwise be qualified to appear on the ballot.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT

KATIE PORTER, DEMOCRAT

I've spent my entire career holding those in power accountable when they lie or break the rules. As Governor, I will go toe-to-toe with Donald Trump and anyone who tries to harm California families. As a Member of Congress, I took on billionaire CEOs and incompetent Trump officials, using a whiteboard to show the facts and expose corruption and cheating. I recovered billions for California homeowners when big banks ripped them off, forced drug companies to stop overcharging taxpayers, and made the Trump Administration deliver free COVID tests for everyone.

Unlike most other Democrats, I refuse donations from corporations and lobbyists. Those special interests and PACs have too much power in Sacramento and are making California unaffordable for the rest of us. I cannot be bought, so you can count on me to bring down your costs, guarantee quality healthcare, and protect the environment.

As the single mom of three kids, I personally push the grocery cart, fill the minivan gas tank, and pay the monthly bills. I have watched expenses like utilities and insurance go up and dollars not stretch as far, just like so many Californians. As your Governor, I will bring down costs for families and increase wages for workers. Here's how: I will eliminate income taxes for Californians earning less than $100,000, build housing that workers can afford, stop charging tuition at our public universities, and make childcare free for all Californians.

Ethan Penner Candidate Statement

I am a change agent. I am an outsider. I am a scholar and educator in the fields of economic systems, government regulations, and business. I am an expert in building new systems when old ones have failed. In the early 1990's, when the U.S real estate industry was in complete collapse I brought revolutionary change that saved the industry and millions of jobs, avoiding a costly taxpayer bailout. I created the systems that have functioned for the past 35 years and built the then largest real estate lender in U.S. history from scratch. Change is scary and is mostly avoided except in moments of obvious total collapse. Today every single system in California is failing – education, economic, energy, transportation, criminal justice, insurance, homelessness, resources, and social welfare. This is the moment for change, and I am the only candidate with the experience, knowledge, temperament, and leadership skills to bring California to where it needs to be. MY VISION for California is simple – safe streets 24/7, affordable and joyful lives to be enjoyed by all, characterized by quality healthcare and retirement savings, an education system that prepares our youth to become productive contributors and great citizens, and a social welfare system that uplifts and inspires and does not create dependency. MY FAMILY life has taught me much. My Latina wife, my five kids, including adoptees from Ethiopia and Venezuela, and a childhood raised by a schoolteacher single mom with no savings, taught me love and service.

Betty Yee

We can't fix the affordability crisis without a Governor who can fix the state budget. The ongoing budget problem is hurting investments in our schools, health care, housing, child care, seniors, and the environment.

I am the only candidate who served as a state budget director, an elected member of the State Board of Equalization, and State Controller. I ruled against corporations and the wealthy, making sure they paid their fair share of taxes. I uncovered $7.3 billion in misspending. I never borrowed externally to pay the state's bills. I protected the retirement funds for school employees. This is what hardworking Californians expect and deserve, an experienced leader who works for them.

Every day, families make tough economic choices about what bills to pay and what to go without. I see this as I help families navigate elder care and child care needs. We can't allow families to fall further behind. And we must not saddle the next generation with costs that will curtail their ability to succeed and thrive. We can, however, invest in our people, growing our economy by creating good-paying jobs in every corner of the state.

Join the Progressive Democrats of America, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders Victory Fund, National Women's Political Caucus of California, California Women's List, Democratic Activists for Women Now, and local elected officials in supporting experienced, accountable leadership to make California add up for everyone. I respectfully ask for your vote.

I'm Dr. Butch Ware, university professor, former VP nominee and your candidate for real change. I accept no money from billionaires or corporations: not a penny from AIPAC, the fossil fuel industry, "healthcare" companies, or other lobbyists. Who funds you, runs you. We are funded by ordinary working Californians like you. I am seeking office to serve the people, not special interests.

California is a beautiful place, but it isn't working for working people. We have the third largest economy in the world, but some of the highest poverty rates in the country. We have 180+ billionaires and 185,000+ homeless Californians. It doesn't have to be this way. We can get private equity out of real estate and make owning or renting a home affordable. We can pass universal single payer healthcare so ordinary people aren't bankrupted by insurance and medical bills. We can bring back tuition-free higher education and end student debt. Californians deserve universal pre-K, better pay for teachers, better funding for schools, and better results for students.

I am running to protect the human rights and dignity of every Californian; that means shielding communities from ICE, and ensuring Californians of all backgrounds and identities are protected from discrimination. I am also running to protect the environment. We can make polluters pay for poisoning our earth, air, and water. We can ensure a bright, sustainable, prosperous, and equitable future for all Californians by taking power from the billionaires and corporations, and returning it back to the people.

Born to an immigrant mother from Panama, Tony Thurmond and his brother were raised by a cousin they had never met after their mother died when Tony was just six years old.

Growing up in poverty, Tony's family relied on public assistance and great public schools to rise out of hardship, experiences that inspired his lifelong dedication to equity and opportunity for all Californians. He ultimately became a social worker, City Councilmember, School Board Member, Assemblymember, and eventually Superintendent of California's $150 billion public school system.

As State Superintendent, Tony sponsored a law to keep ICE out of California Schools. He helped create universal preschool for 4-year-olds, and universal meals for hungry kids. Thurmond helped pass billions in funds to make schools safer by removing asbestos and other toxins.

Tony understands that our political system is broken. From skyrocketing costs of food and groceries to a federal government assaulting our civil liberties, our state is in a crisis. Meanwhile, the billionaires just get richer and richer.

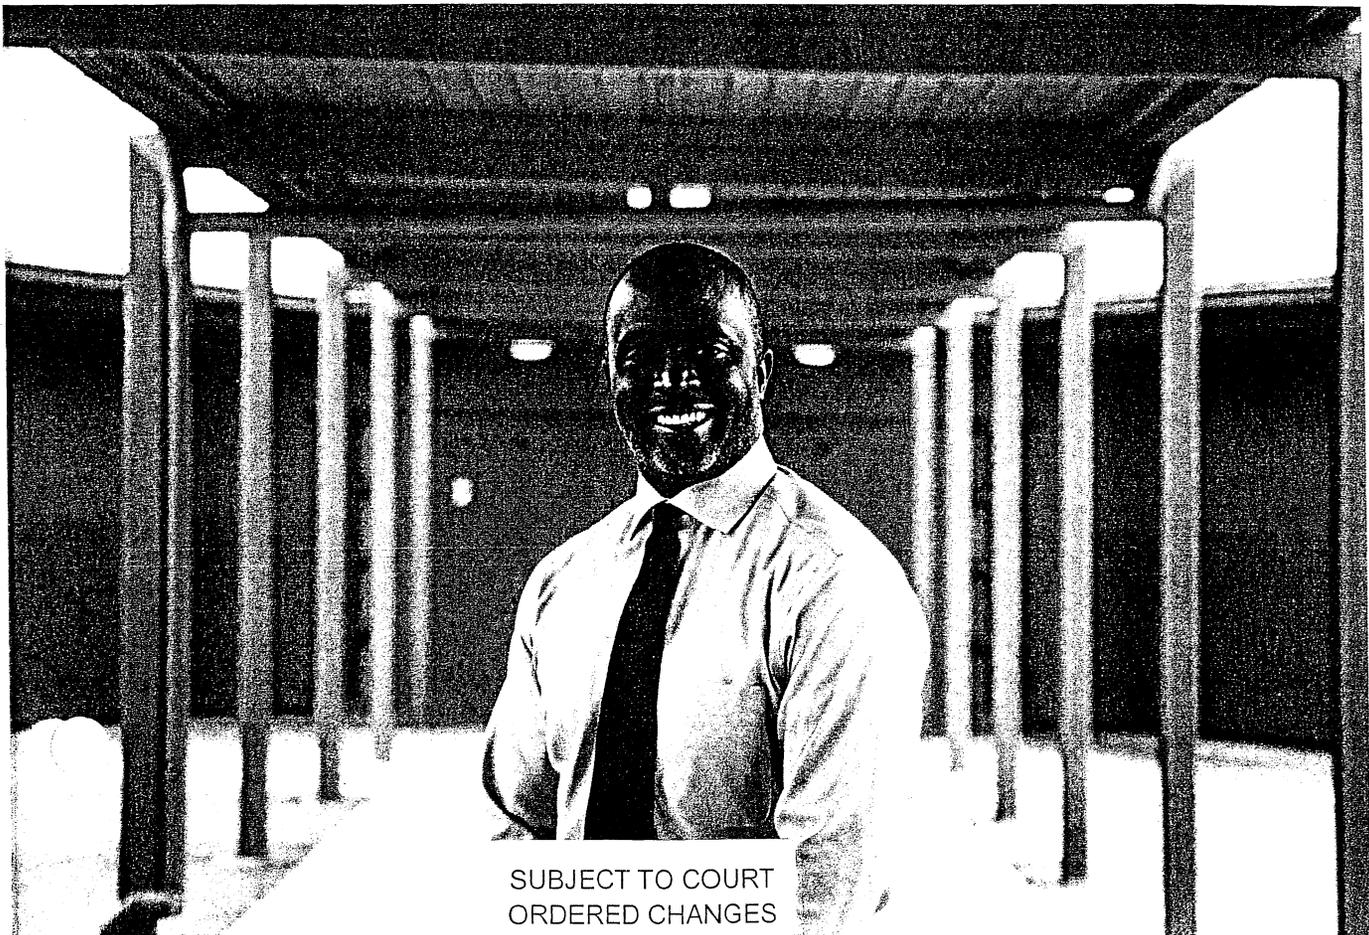

That's why he's fighting for a tax on billionaires, healthcare for all, abolishing ICE, 2 million new units of housing, finally fully funding our public schools, abortion care that is legal and accessible, getting weapons of war off of our streets, and protecting democracy.

We need a leader who will stand up to the billionaires, to the federal government, and fight for everyday working-class Californians.

We need Tony Thurmond.

On June 2nd, vote Tony Thurmond for Governor. Visit tonythurmond.com.

Margaret Trowe's candidate statement, amended. No qualified party preference.

Margaret Trowe, five-decade member of Socialist Workers Party, is a hotel housekeeper, member of UNITE-HERE union. Organized solidarity, joined strikes of hotel, school, hospital workers. Calls for union-backed fight for amnesty for undocumented workers to build working-class unity.

Longtime fighter against racism, for women's rights and against Washington's wars, from Vietnam to Venezuela. Defends Israel's right to exist and defend itself. Stands against rising Jew-hatred. A supporter of the Cuban Revolution that brought working people to power. Says "U.S. Hands off Cuba! End U.S. Economic Blockade of Cuba!"

Defends free speech, due process, other Constitutional protections. Campaigns for need for workers to take political power — the only solution to world capitalist economic, political, and moral crisis and the only way to stop the capitalist rulers' march to World War III.

Erin Zez Zezulak, Democratic Candidate for Governor of California

Hello Californians, I'm Erin Zez Zezulak, RN, IBCLC, MPH, a nurse, educator, small-business owner, consultant, and mom. I was born, raised, and educated in California. My school-teacher Democrat mother and my wildlife biologist, Republican, avid hunter father gave my sisters and me a multidimensional outlook of California. Following the animals my father studied, I have lived in many beautiful State and National Parks in California, as well as with my grandparents in the Los Angeles and San Francisco Bay areas.

I know California.

Working with patients and families in the California medical system for nearly 30 years has helped me plan for a unified, equitable healthcare system for all people living in California.

Equity for all Californians extends to education, safety, and protection. We all must be protected from discrimination and unconstitutional practices. ICE will not be permitted in California using its present tactics.

Working with my grandfather, a building contractor, helped me see how to maximize our cities, enabling affordable housing for all.

Living in agricultural communities has inspired my water management plans to eliminate the drought/flood cycle that impacts California's farming, economy, and communities.

As a pilot in training, I planned strategies for fighting wildfires from the air and for early fire detection to mitigate wildfire destruction.

Erin Zez Zezulak, Democratic Candidate for Governor of California

I know California. I will work to build a better California for all as your next Governor.

Thank you for your vote.

Matthew Chase Levy is a California-based entrepreneur, internationally recognized scientist and running for Governor as a political outsider. He is the founder of NobleAI, a Science-Based AI platform that accelerates discovery and innovation in chemistry, materials, and energy sectors, and AE Blue Capital, a venture firm that backs fusion and other advanced clean-energy technologies critical to addressing California's rising energy costs, grid reliability issues, and long-term decarbonization goals. His experience with these endeavors will drive practical solutions of societal problems, expand employment and maintain California's preeminent role as a world leader in harnessing science for the benefit of all Californians

Levy holds a B.A. from UCLA and Master's and Ph.D. degrees in physics from Rice University. While completing his doctorate, he conducted research at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory on U.S. strategic security. This led to him becoming the first American physicist awarded the Isaac Newton International Fellowship by the Royal Society at Oxford University. Early international experience in Tokyo - before and during his UCLA years - combined with his work in the UK, gives him a unique perspective on global innovation and the challenges facing California families.

Levy is a Fellow at Wolfson College, Oxford; a Trustee of The Washington Institute; and serves on the Finance Committee for the Mayor of Oakland and former Congresswoman Barbara Lee. Levy resides in Oakland with his wife Debbie Senesky, a Stanford professor, and her 12-year-old daughter.

Candidate Statement 2026

For
Ronald A. Anderson

We are all in need of real quality help. It's time we all come together Republican or Democrat. We all shop at the same stores, grocery markets, the same restaurants, and we are stuck with high overwhelming taxes, undecided rising health care, and the destruction of quality school learning the destructive people rioting, out of control protesting. Race, religion problems and overwhelming increasing Homelessness, fire control that just needs adjusting; Our Elders need more help and our furry friends are needing help as well and so much more is needed to be done. I'm Ronald A. Anderson and I actually have a plan and the answer that NO one other has that will fix the problems that we all have today; WE will all have more money in our pockets and a better lifestyle that will suit everyone. Go to RonAndersonForGovernor.com

Stay safe my friends, God Bless and God Speed to all.

Soozan Alcaraz

Soozan Alcaraz is a public-school parent and Senior Program Manager running for Governor of California to restore trust in state government and bring fiscal responsibility to make California more affordable.

Born to migrant farm workers and raised in a working-class family, she understands the challenges California families face, especially as a single mother of two. As a teenager, she experienced homelessness. She went on to earn bachelor's and master's degrees.

Professionally, Soozan managed complex programs and saw how government waste impacts taxpayers.

She is committed to delivering meaningful results for everyday Californians by reducing waste, strengthening public education, supporting small farms and businesses, and modernizing state services.

Candidate statement- Dr Gregory Albaugh

As Governor of California, my mission is to return her to her previous state of glory and to unite her citizens. She was once thought to be the 4th largest economy in the world but has slipped to 5th. The cost of doing business in California has become prohibitive, causing many legacy California business to leave the state. Housing, gas, and energy prices are driving out young families and strangling the rest. The situation in California is unsustainable and the solution to many of these issues must be swift and effective. The issues can be solved with innovation and common sense, and I am a champion of both. I have the leadership from 30 years as a Navy veteran, the business acumen of 25 years of working in California, and the empathy of 30 years as a physician to draw from to make the golden state golden again.

California is entering a pivotal moment—and with the right leadership, a hopeful and prosperous new season is within reach.

For more than four decades, I have served California as a leader, builder, and steward. I have founded and led thriving organizations, managed complex operations and budgets, and brought together people from diverse backgrounds to meet real needs. Through my church, my business work, and my service in local communities, I've overseen large teams, partnered with nonprofits and civic leaders, and remained accountable to the people we serve.

I am also a small-business owner who understands firsthand the pressures facing families and entrepreneurs—rising costs, regulation, and uncertainty—and how disciplined, principled leadership can create opportunity and stability.

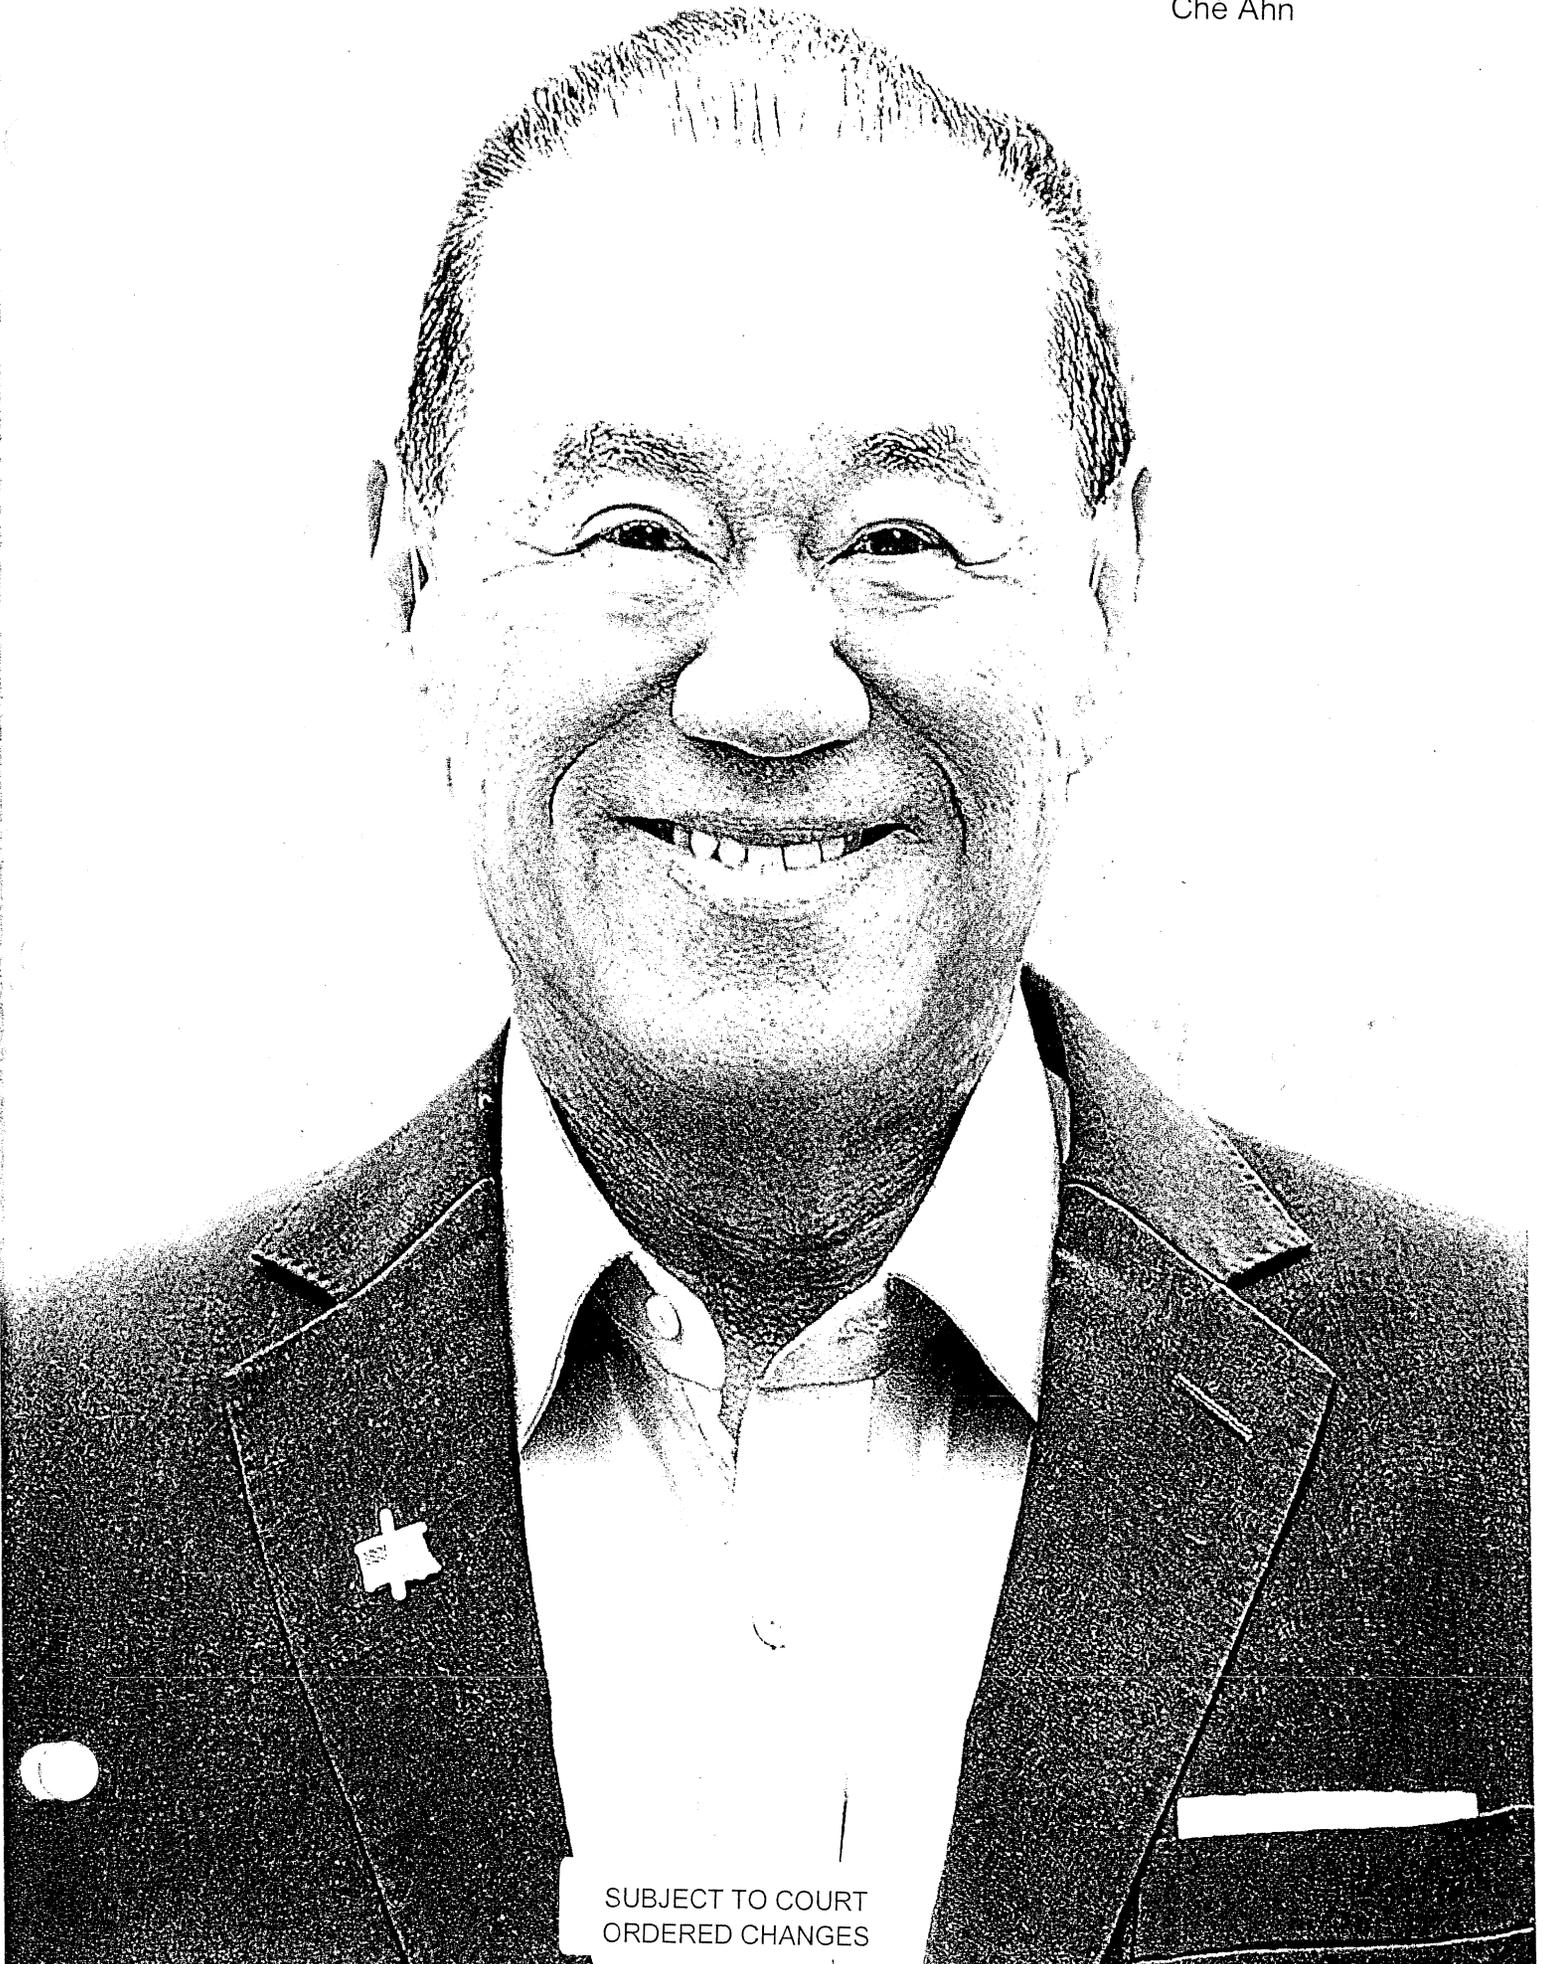

During the COVID era, I led a legal challenge that reached the United States Supreme Court and resulted in a decisive ruling that strengthened constitutional protections for religious freedom and limited executive overreach—benefiting all Californians.

Throughout my life's work, service has come first. Listening, stewardship, and responsibility have guided every decision—whether leading organizations, supporting families, or standing up for fundamental freedoms.

I'm running for Governor with a simple commitment: California First, People Over Party—serving every community with integrity, humility, and care as we move forward together.

Ché Ahn is leadership you can count on.

California was built on a promise: that through hard work and innovation, any citizen could build a prosperous life. Today, that promise is fading under partisan gridlock and a $31 billion transportation budget that leaves our roads crumbling. I am running for Governor to provide the "Independent Fix" our state desperately needs.

Sacramento politicians are asking for new taxes, but their own budget—Schedule 11—shows they are sitting on $30.1 billion in unspent, voter-approved bond money. We have nearly $500 million for traffic reduction sitting idle since 2006. As a business owner, I know you don't ask for a new credit card when you haven't used the one in your pocket.

We must also confront our humanitarian crises. Homelessness, plummeting school performance, and our mental health crisis are all symptoms of the same failed bureaucracy. For too long, we have used our jails as warehouses for the mentally ill while allowing our streets to become encampments. I will shift resources away from bloat and into community treatment, focusing on recovery instead of a revolving prison door.

Finally, we must restore and revamp the Donahoe Higher Education Act. I will return our public universities to the merit-based, accessible model that once made California the envy of the world. By auditing "ghost projects" and redirecting interest savings, we can fund our schools and clinics without raising your taxes.

I am an independent uniter from the Inland Empire, not a career politician. I respectfully ask for your vote to fix California

Joseph Cabrera

I am the next Governor of California. I ask you not to focus on this election or contest. We can start now.

At fifteen, I left one of the finest high schools in America. My classmates walked to Princeton and Harvard — the conventional roads to power. I saw a better way. I dropped out to find it. I went to the ground. I have been homeless. I have been prosecuted for breaking a window to survive. And from that ground, I drafted a constitutional revision — alone — reimagining how California governs forty million souls at the dawn of artificial intelligence. No one else is doing this. I did it because no one else would.

Everyone called me crazy. I kept building. I built it for you.

California invented the age of artificial intelligence and is governed by a constitution built for the age of farmland. This is not optional. Without a revision, we do not lead — we rust. I wrote that revision. It is the New Deal of our era, raised to its highest prudent power.

I got Altadena and Palisades — devastated, unincorporated, without even a city government to fight for them. I got the social fabric — no more letting our neighbors fall while we shrug. I got labor. I got the innovators. The days of zero sum are over. Everyone wins when I win.

Budget me your focus. Visit cal.vote. Come build with me.

I got all forty million of you. We are doing this.

Californians are tired of politics. They want solutions. I am running for Governor to unite California around practical results and restore the California dream.

I believe in a simple promise: if you want a job in California, you should be able to find one here.

Our state was built by entrepreneurs, small businesses, farmers, innovators, and workers willing to take risks and work hard. Government's role is to create the conditions for opportunity, not stand in the way.

Since 1991, I have built businesses and created jobs in California. I have traveled across our state meeting with mayors and local leaders from both parties. They all want the same fundamentals: safe streets, strong schools, thriving local economies, and accountability for taxpayer dollars.

California should be the state of the future, not a state where families and employers feel forced to leave. Tax revenue is not a business model. Growth, innovation, and job creation are. My priorities are clear.

Economic Development that streamlines regulation, supports small businesses, strengthens workforce training, and expands opportunity across every region.

Health and Safety that funds proven mental health treatment, practical housing solutions, and accountable public safety.

Power Back to the People by restoring local control, ending unfunded mandates, uncovering fraud, and ensuring full transparency in how tax dollars are spent.

Together, we can rebuild opportunity and move forward as One California.

Gretha Solorzano Candidate Statement - February 9th, 2026

My name is Gretha Solorzano. I am a UC Berkeley-trained scientist, a retired nuclear engineer, and a candidate for Governor of California. As a pragmatic moderate, I am committed to bridging political divides and uniting Californians—conservatives, liberals, and independents alike—around practical solutions that work.

My mission is simple: make California affordable and sustainable again. I will strengthen our economy through strategic investments in advanced energy and water infrastructure, including redirecting the $32.7 billion we currently spend on foreign oil toward domestic production to improve energy security and keep jobs here at home. I will also tackle California's housing shortage, and I will reverse the decline in our education system.

With my technical expertise, fiscal discipline, and results-oriented leadership, I will create jobs, lower utility costs, and deliver long-term growth for all Californians.

Ballot Statement for Jon Slavet - Candidate for Governor

[247 words]

As a father of five, I see California's future through the eyes of my children. Today, that future is being priced away. I'm a job creator, problem solver, and unifier running to end the partisanship and implement a practical plan to make California work for your family.

Lowering Costs:

Healthcare Fairness and Affordability: Use California's market leverage to negotiate lower drug prices and provide essential-needs debit cards. Create rural healthcare fund to expand tele-health and increase access.

Affordable Housing: Freeze harmful CEQA mandates, reform the Coastal Commission, and enforce a 90-day permit turnaround. By removing legal barriers and closing Proposition 13 disparities for new buyers while protecting current owners, we will lower home prices and rents.

Cheaper Energy: End the Cap-and-Trade climate tax and lower the gas tax. By joining the Western energy market, we save ratepayers $1 billion annually. My "all-of-the-above" strategy ensures reliable power and lower electric and gas costs for every household.

Safe Communities:

Homelessness: The goal is reducing nights on the street, and we do that by prioritizing temporary supportive housing and restoring mental health institutional care. No more failed programs.

Education: I believe in school choice, and we will jump-start hiring and raise pay for our best teachers.

Immigration: We will end free healthcare for the undocumented while creating a bipartisan path to legal status for long-term, assimilated neighbors.

Transparency is the disinfectant. I will end backroom deals and special-interest negotiations. We will have a California that is safe, affordable, and united.

I am running for Governor of California to deliver competent, accountable leadership focused on results. As a nurse and operations manager, I've worked in high-pressure environments where errors have real consequences and accountability matters. I'm also a mother who worked full time while attending college—so I understand stress, sacrifice, and responsibility firsthand. California's challenges are practical, not abstract. Affordability, public safety, access to healthcare, education, and infrastructure reliability affect families every day. The system isn't broken, it's ill. With proper steps we can make it a little better every day, and we will be well. I ask for your consideration and your trust to help move California forward.

Please elect me governor, to save our rights/lives. We're in an Emergency: I'll declare a State of Emergency, to save us! Murderous government thugs kill us daily, for the "crimes" of seeking asylum, documenting attacks, protesting. California arrests 800,000 annually, most for unconstitutional victimless/consensual "crimes", enslaving 200,000 daily, without telling jurors we can always vote "not guilty". "Drug" prohibition/regulation causes trillions in medical costs, murders, poverty worldwide, making millions refugees, torturing sick people to death. Millions Americans homeless, half destitute.

We'll tax 5% wealth over $10,000,000 and income over $1,000,000, yielding $1,100,000,000,000 annually, retroactively even. Rent freeze! No lockdowns or forced vaccinations: optional and real food instead! I support school choice and oppose reverse discrimination: equal opportunity instead.

We'll increase California State Guard from 900 to 2,000,000, one per classroom, stopping most murders, including by ICE nationwide, preventing martial law, closing slavery/death camps, pardoning innocent slaves!

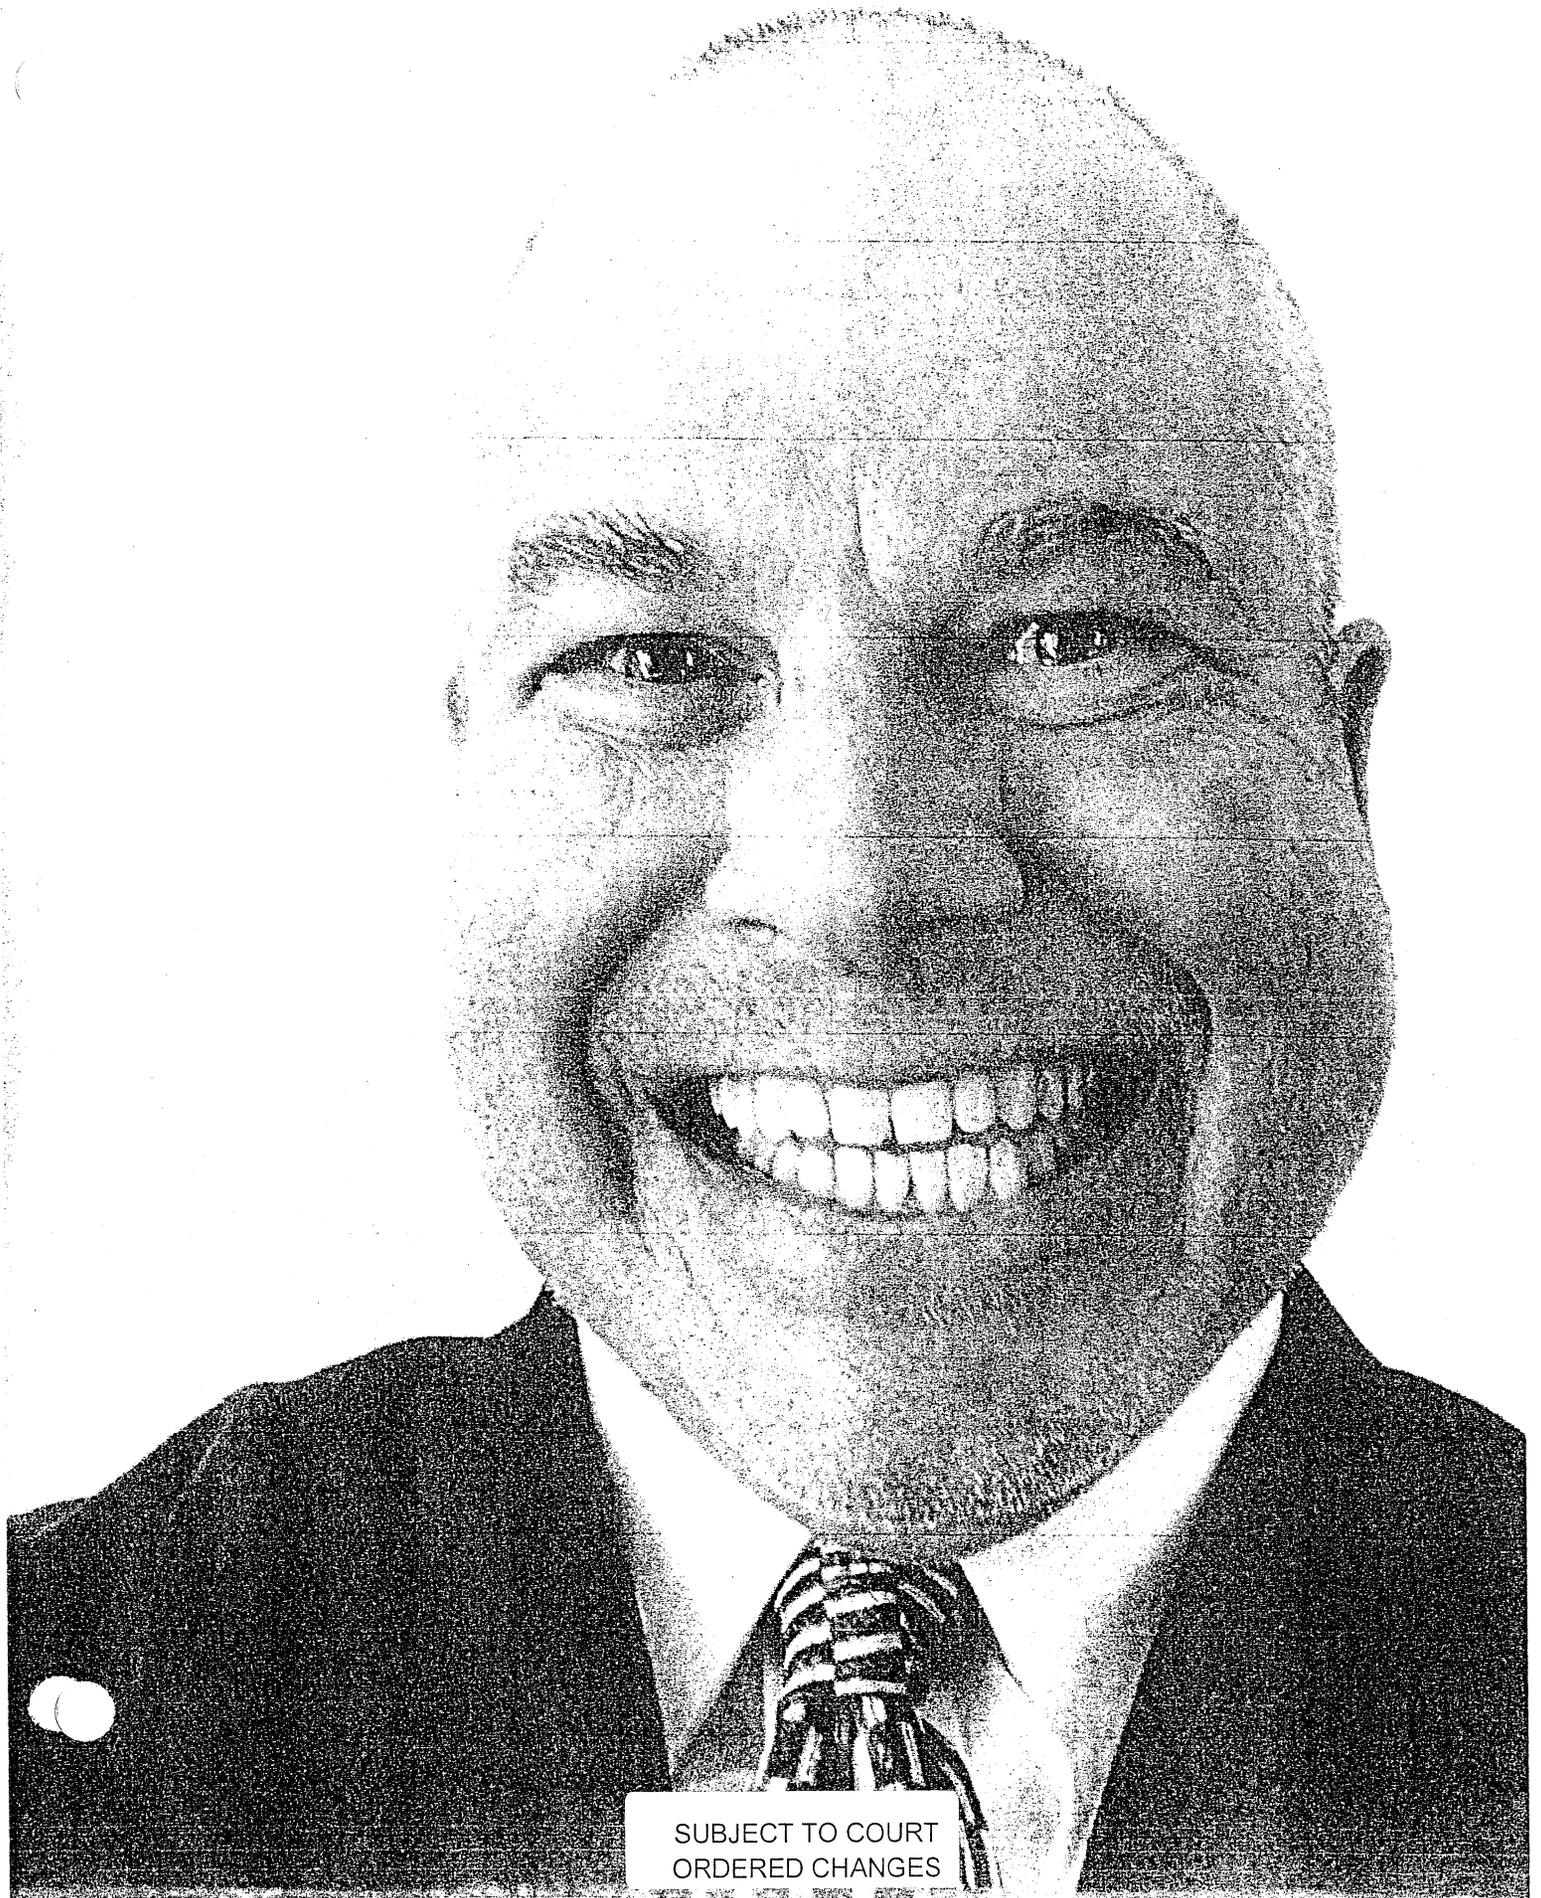

We'll enforce bodily autonomy rights, to abortion, assisted suicides and guns. Human rights to housing ($10,000 homes), living wages, jobs, income, higher/trade education, healthcare (nationwide), food (worldwide), childcare, public transport without deadly high speed trains. Free utilities/gasoline, but save environment. We'll ban pesticides, factory farms, "autonomous" vehicles.

No sales taxes or income taxes under $100,000!

We'll enforce our rights to democracy: Equal vote and chance to serve (publicly financed elections). Privacy rights: No mass surveillance, "Flock" spying cameras. Carina Sanchez Lieutenant Governor, Dan Kapelovitz Attorney General. Free the People! #Fred4CA.com!

United we stand, divided we fall. California has never been more divided in our politics, and it is costing us time, money, and trust.

I am Jon Henderson, and I am running for Governor as an Independent because California needs balance, not blame. Our state is too diverse, by region, race, income, age, and ideology, to be governed for only one side. I will govern for everyone who works hard, raises a family, runs a business, serves a community, or simply wants a fair shot. I believe in the Golden Rule for the Golden State.

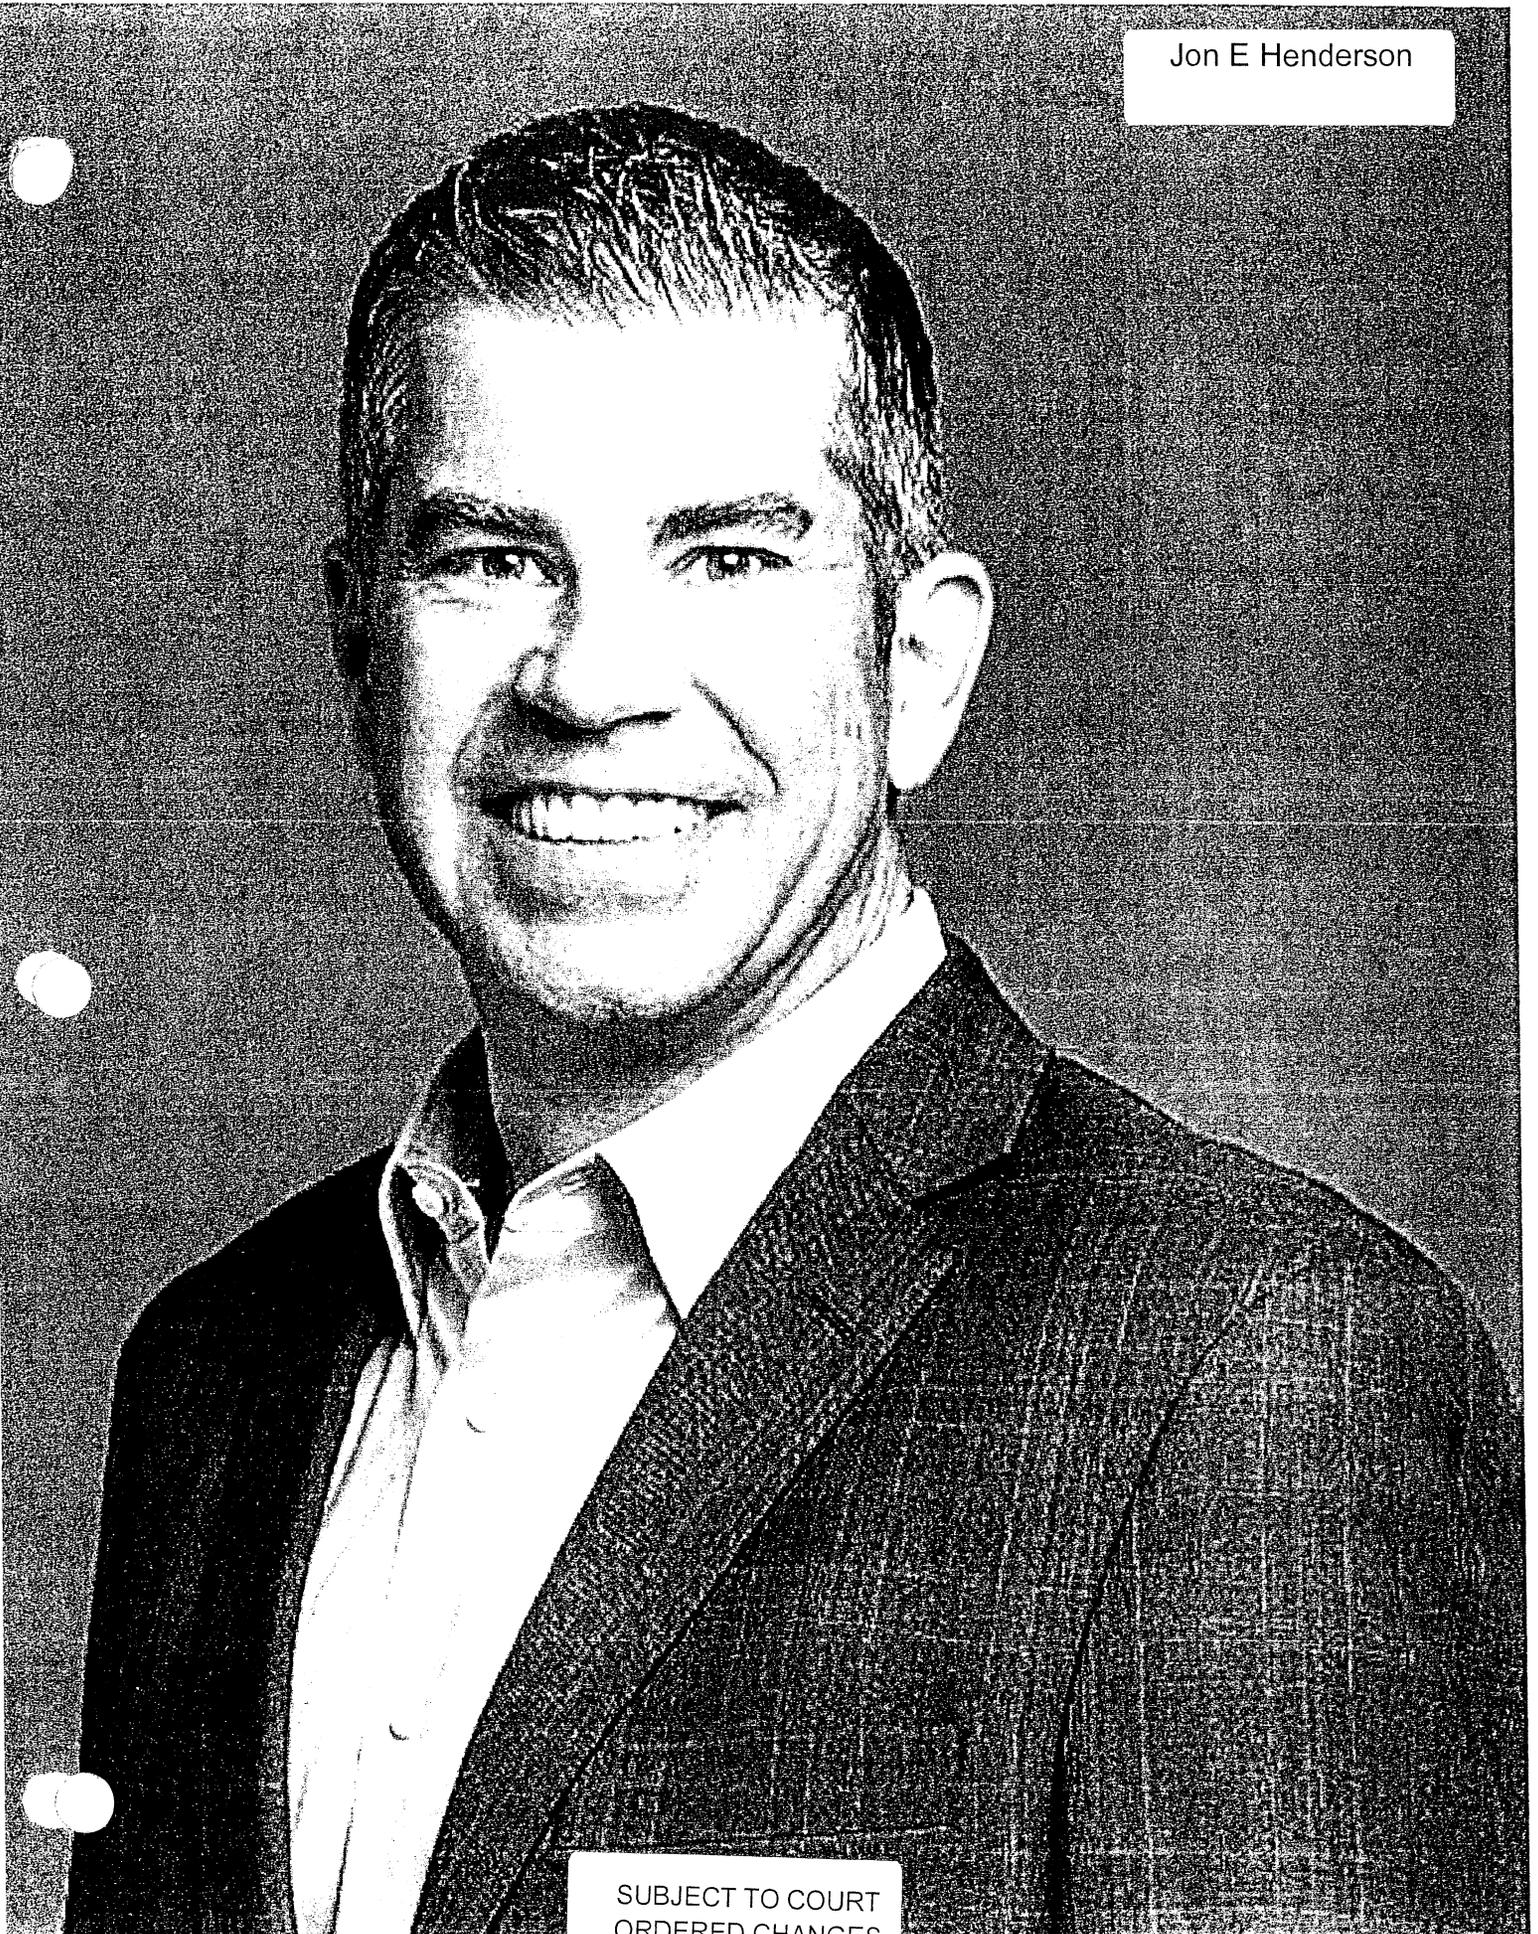

A proud product of California public schools, I have built multiple companies from nothing. I know how to set goals, measure results, and deliver.

Government should operate under a fiduciary standard, putting the public interest first. I will place my own assets in a blind trust, and I will push to require blind trusts for California lawmakers. Corruption and conflicts of interest have gotten out of hand. If we remove the incentive to profit from public office, we can rebuild trust across party lines.

My book, California 2.0: An Independent Vision for California's Abundant Future, provides a blueprint with solutions to our biggest challenges, from housing and wildfires, using innovative technology that already exists.

I am running for the majority of Californians in the middle who are sick of the extremes. If you believe our state deserves independent thinking, balance, and accountability over partisan loyalty, I would be honored to earn your vote.

Our state needs better leadership. California voters do not wake up thinking about party labels, they think about paying rent, buying a home, running a business, and keeping their families safe. They are tired of petty politics while real problems go unsolved.

I am an engineer, professor, and a business owner. My career has been built on solving complex problems, managing budgets, and delivering results. In engineering, excuses do not fix systems, actions do. That is the mindset I will bring to the Governor's office.

Housing, affordability, and homelessness are not partisan issues. They are human issues. We must increase housing supply by reforming redundant regulations and cutting unnecessary red tape and costs. We must support responsible development that creates obtainable homes for families.

We must address homelessness with compassion and accountability, expanding mental health and treatment services while ensuring clear pathways to stable housing.

Leadership means telling the truth, making data driven decisions, and taking responsibility. It means working with anyone, regardless of their party. Acting responsibly means putting results ahead of talk and our citizens ahead of politics.

Our state deserves clear thinking and honest leadership. We can disagree without being divided, and we can solve problems by working together.

It is time to restore trust, focus on what matters, and build a future where opportunity is within reach for everyone.

I respectfully ask for your support and your vote.

I, Khaled Fattal, am running for California Governor as a public servant, not a politician. My goal is to create "Genuine Change Now", turn California from forth to third economy and best cyber-defended state worldwide, deliver unprecedented people prosperity, and revive our deteriorating traditional values, all in one term.

As a businessman with three decades of philanthropy serving the global public good, my authenticity is my greatest strength, far surpassing my three-time best-selling author credentials, one of the Internet's many fathers label, international expertise in politics, geopolitics, and cybersecurity, or my experience in building pioneering businesses and collaborating with world innovators and leaders.

You're probably fed up, like most Americans, with the two main parties' politicians' decades of broken promises.

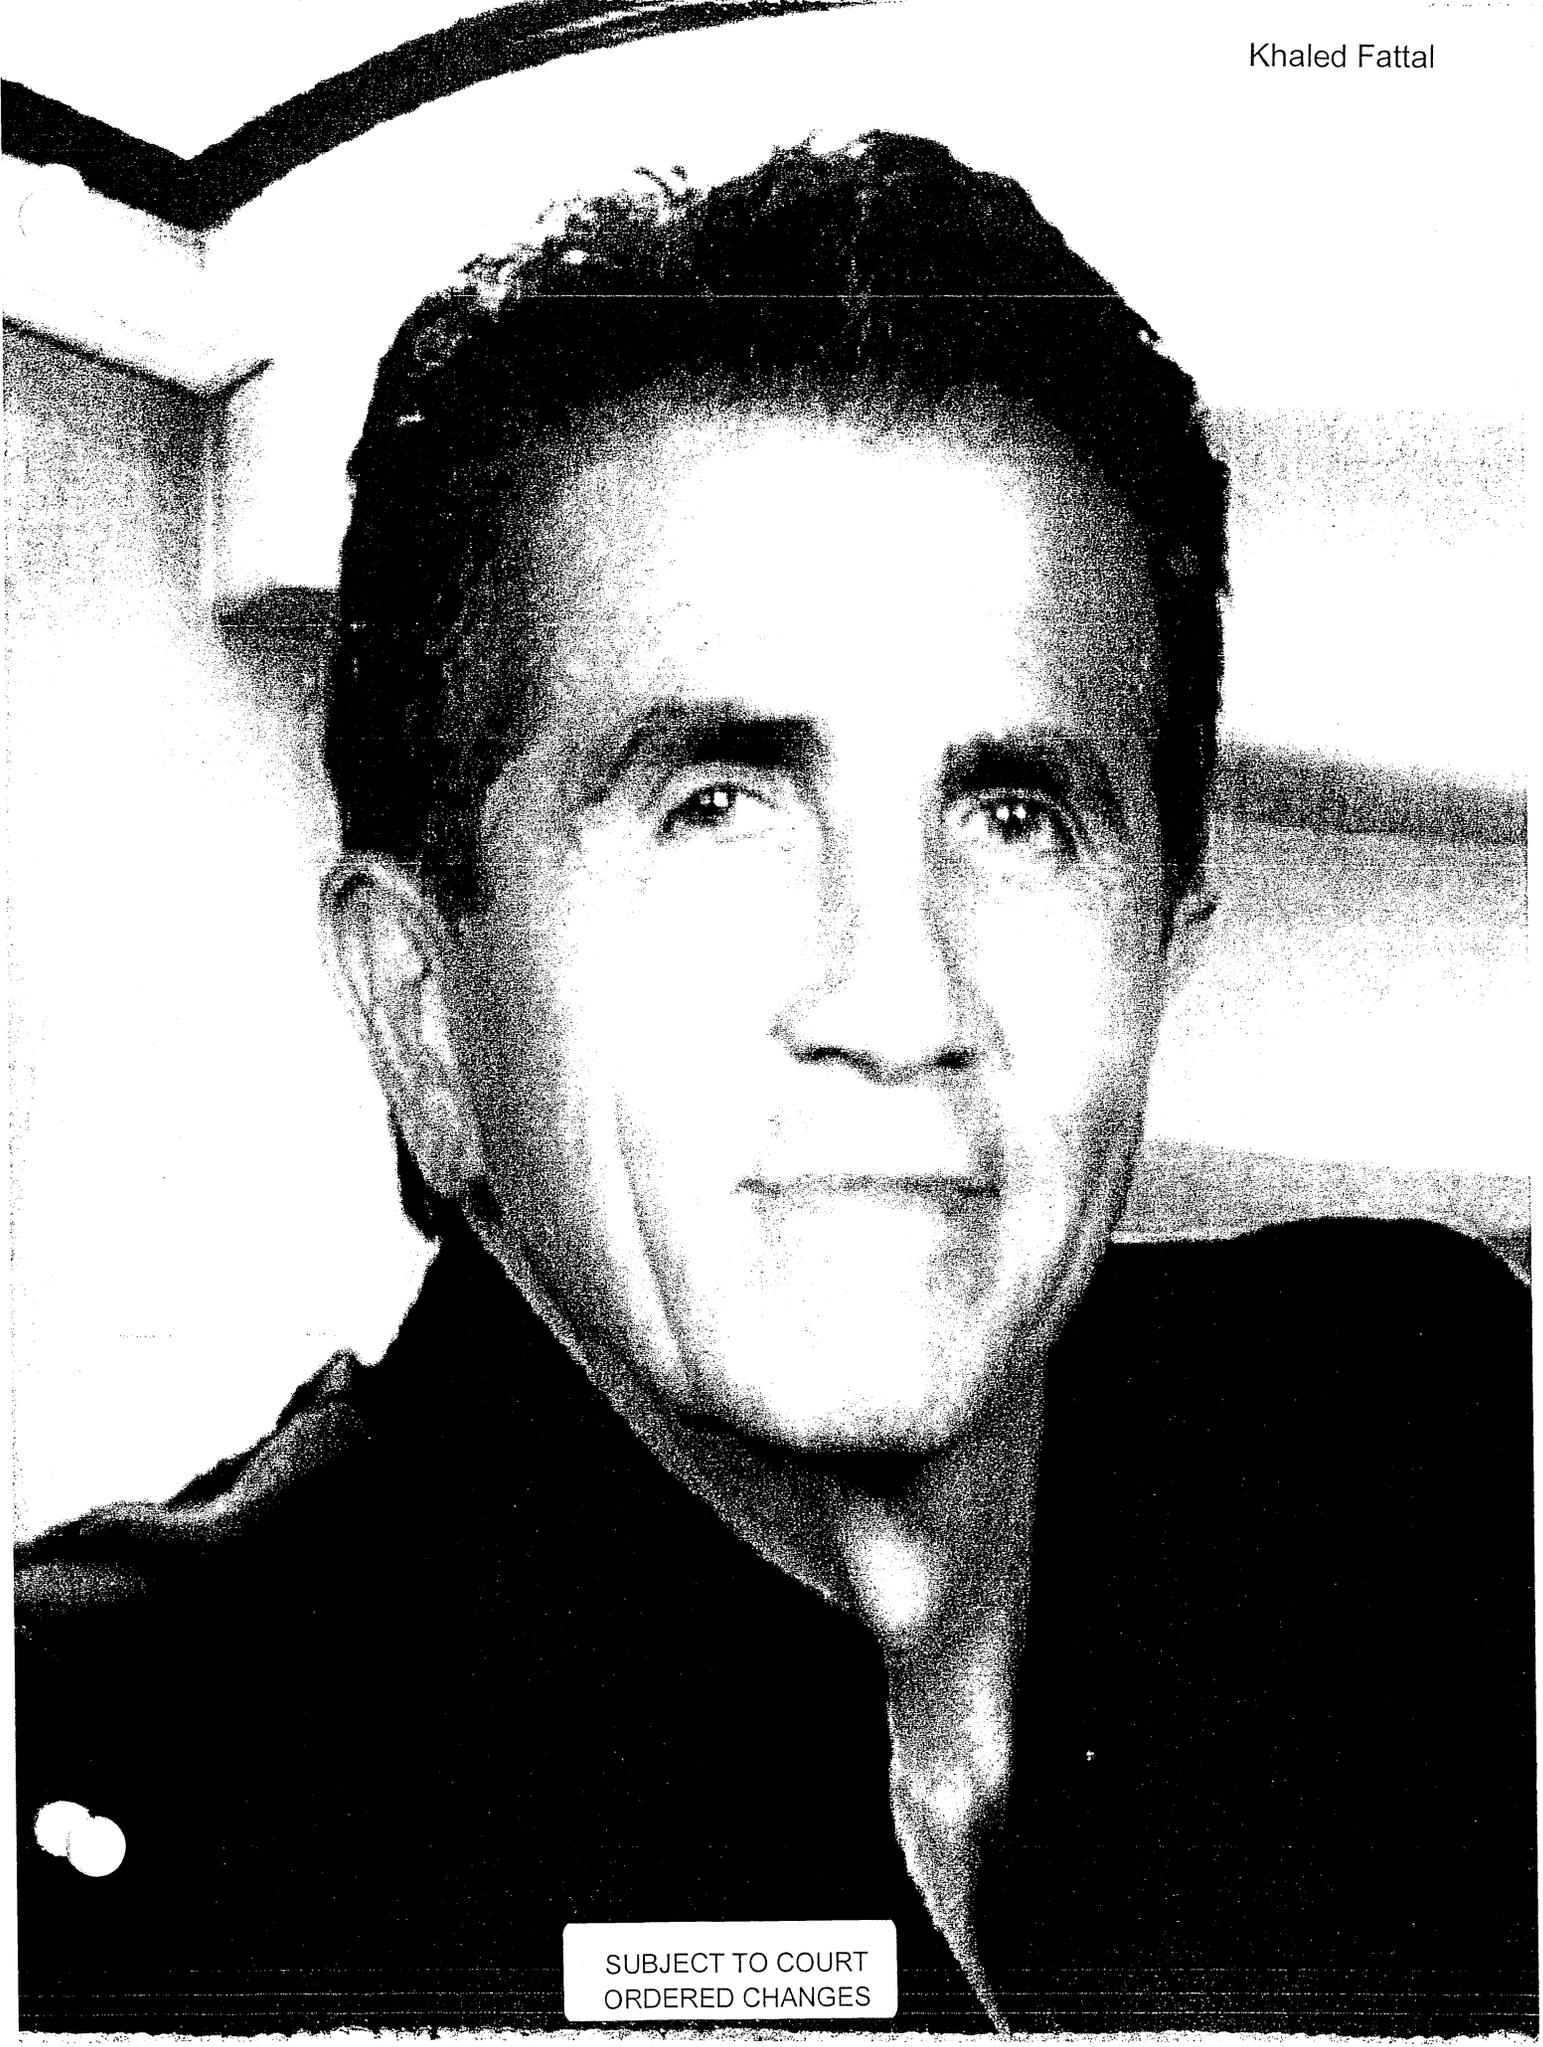

As Governor, I pledge to serve you the people first, no special interest, foreign nation interest, or self-interest. Make long-term transformational investments in infrastructure, children's education, fix homelessness, prioritize healthcare and veterans.

Key to my unconventional economic development model fostering skills, job creation and grassroot prosperity are my Beyond-Survivability Collaboration Centres in capitals worldwide promoting California to benefit citizens.

I offer a deliverable vision, revived California, leadership for other states and countries to follow - serving citizens first, above all, always.

Serge Fiankan's Statement

My mission is to bring Californians together, across regions, backgrounds, and political lines, to build a state that works for the people who live here. I'm running to deliver practical, transparent, accountable leadership that puts solutions over ideology and people over politics. That means restoring trust in government, reforming systems that no longer serve us, and strengthening communities, from rural towns to major cities, so every Californian has opportunity, an affordable life, and a safe place to call home.

CALIFORNIA GUBERNATORIAL 2026 CANDIDATE
DANIEL MERCURI CANDIDATE STATEMENT VOTER INFORMATION GUIDE

My governorship will NOT be one to lead, but to serve all Californians. I'm a US Navy Veteran and native-born Californian armed with full knowledge and understanding of our Constitution to: investigate, indict, prosecute, and imprison corrupt bureaucrats, protect children from pedophiles and child sex traffickers, restrain school indoctrinators, refine student education, strengthen parental rights, end criminalizing victims and victimizing the criminal, prioritize the lawful citizen over the illegal, penalize government money laundering, end state tax on tips, retirement, property, and income while re-invigorating small businesses and stifling regulatory overreach. We'll become energy independent, restrict CEQA, and provide medical freedom. The status of the people will remain above government at all times under my administration.

This is your one chance to make a difference by voting outside the establishment picks. I will not fail you!

Naomi Bar- Lev musician, proprietor, activist ( for designation only )

The party system has definitively failed us. Media's incomplete reporting, unforgivable.

My background includes a BA in Economics, UCLA, real estate broker for 20 plus years, construction experience, vice president, managing hundreds of loan officers and agents, to a robust Airbnb business. Improvements were made to my property to double the business's income, the very year vandalism and espionage against me began. Survival of continued attacks has enlightened me!

I wrote a primer about the tyranny that has taken over, its explosive corruption, its use of police, the courts, technology, corporatism (<https://www.linkedin.com/in/naomi-bar-lev-56b894346>). Big tech partnerships now are violating civil and consumer rights as well as anti-trust law. At the center are fusion centers, hubs of information and military grade technology- 6 centers statewide run by "local police". They have connected all devices, espionage made possible against the individual and business, which has transformed the courts.

I am no friend to politicians. As governor, fusion centers will be for serious investigations of fraud, theft, and waste, a healthy revenue source with a leaner budget. Police will return to neighborhoods, fighting crime, taking reports equally among citizens, using a constitutionally compliant database. Phones and devices will be recalled, past services refunded, phone, alarm systems, wifi..."Partnerships" and non-disclosure agreements in government will be eliminated. A hiring spree to stock consumer and civil rights agencies, local and state leaders replaced by public servants. No sales, income, or property tax. Parking fees and permit fees will be eliminated.

California Secretary of State
Elections Division
FEB 09 2026

Chad Bianco

My name is Chad Bianco. I'm a husband, a father, and the Sheriff of Riverside County.

I didn't rise through politics. I rose through public service. As Sheriff, I lead one of the largest law enforcement agencies in California. We've reduced violent crime, stood up for victims, and supported the men and women who protect our communities. I've made hard decisions under pressure, in situations with real consequences. Leadership isn't about slogans. When common sense fails, regular people pay the price.

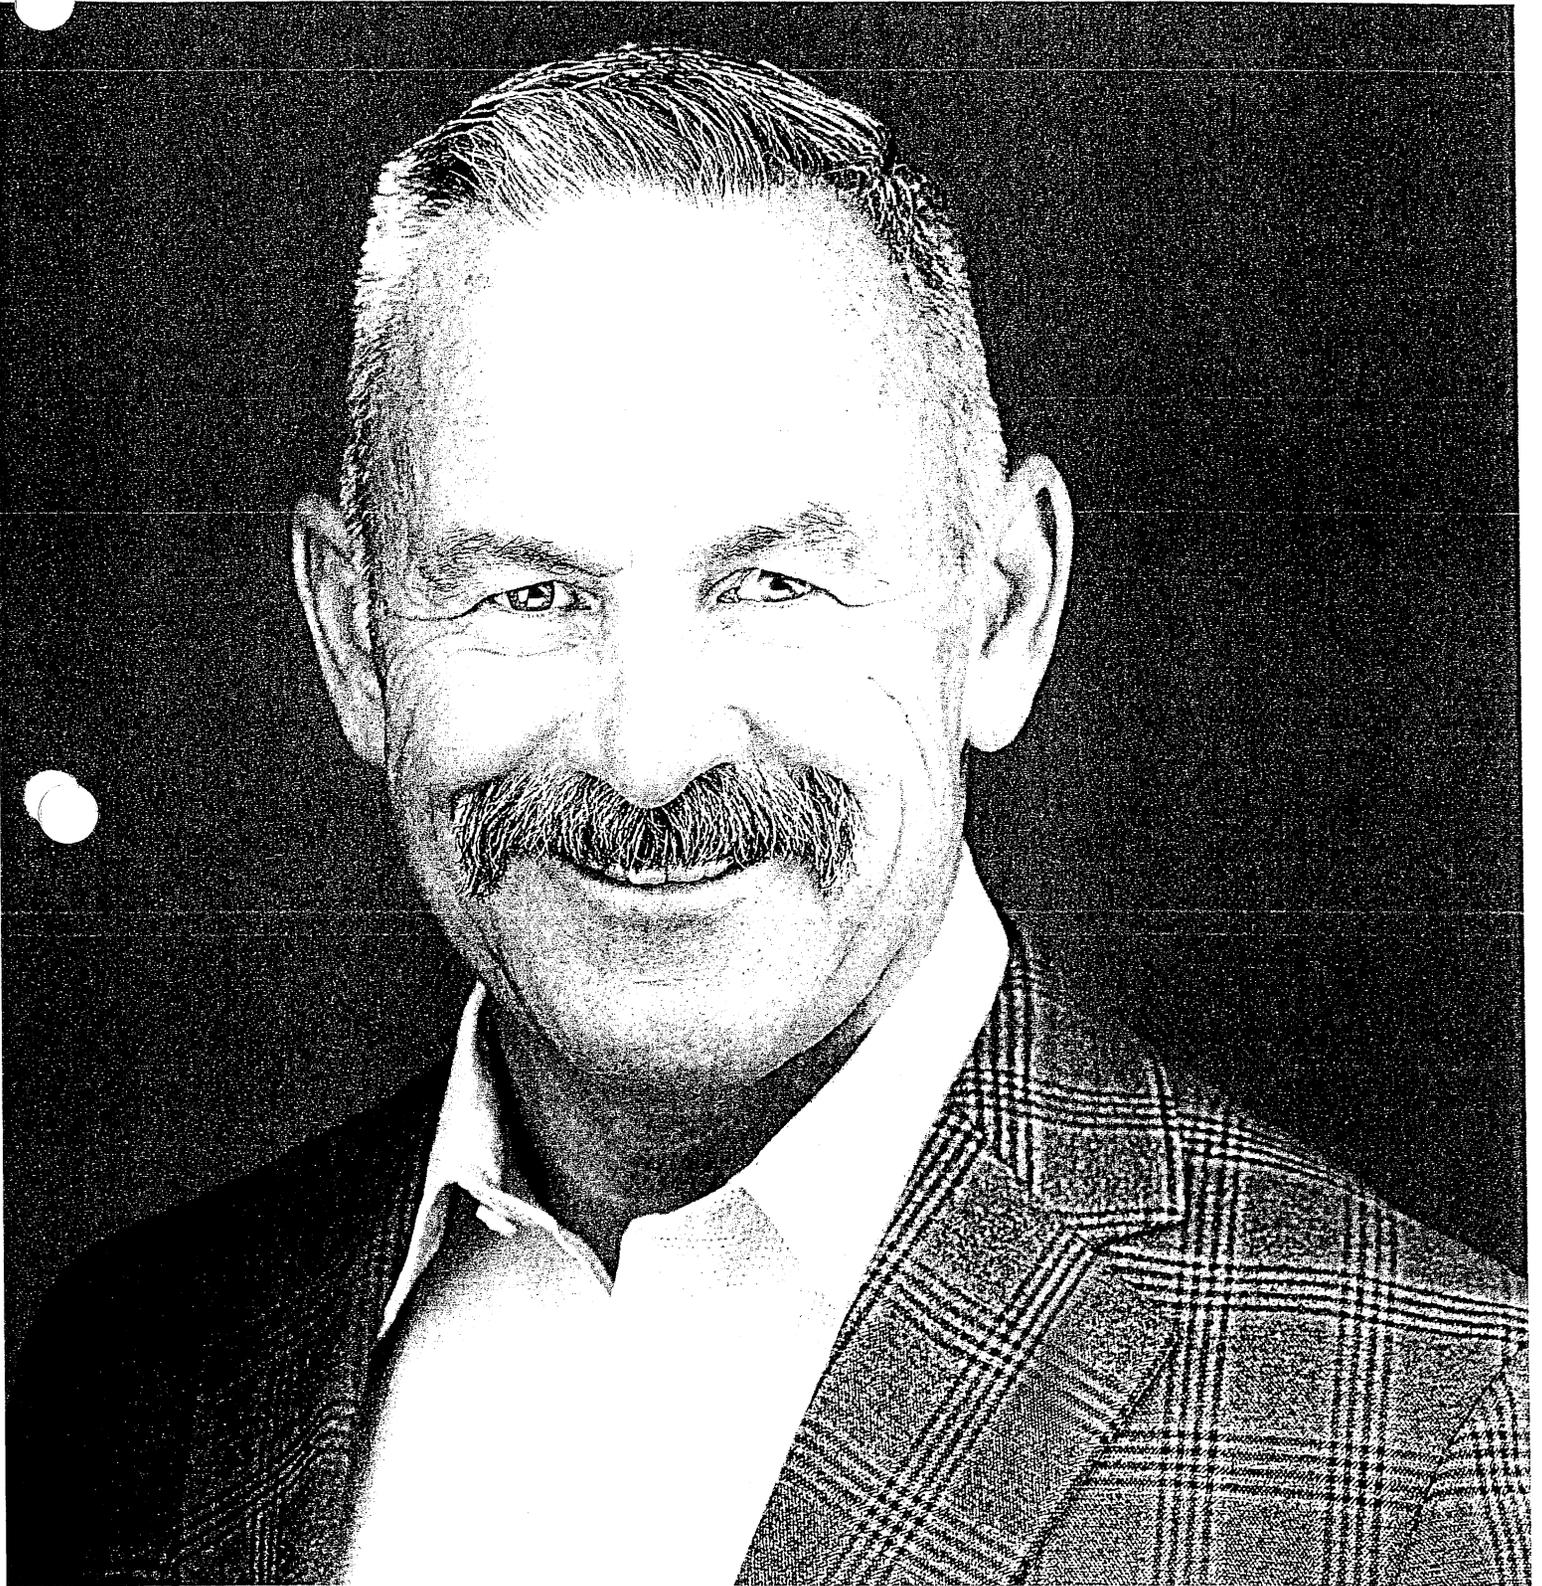

California is at a turning point. Too many families are struggling just to get by. Moms and dads are working longer hours and still falling behind. Jobs are leaving, pushing our children to look elsewhere for opportunity. Buying a home feels out of reach. Gas, groceries, and utilities cost more every month. People are doing everything right and still getting squeezed.

As Governor, I will bring accountability and common sense back to state government. I will cut through bureaucracy that keeps families from rebuilding after wildfires. I will demand real results for the billions spent on homelessness, and end the cycle of spending without accountability. We may not agree on everything, but we all want the same basics: safe neighborhoods, opportunity for our kids, and a fair shot at getting ahead.

As a husband, a father, and a Sheriff, I know what responsibility means. I know what leadership is. I've seen the best and the worst, and I know we can do better. I'm asking for your vote.

Occupation: Educator and School Board Trustee

I come from a working class community. I believe that everyone should have a good quality of life. That means affordable housing, a safe community and a quality education. My life experiences have taught me that anything is possible.

My work across California as a teacher, principal and public servant supporting diverse communities, has prepared me to tackle statewide issues.

Together, we will keep kidnappers (ICE) off our streets, make housing affordable for working families, first responders, teachers, firefighters, and nurses. Education will be supported with pre-school, reading specialists, and mental health counselors to help our students thrive. Let's make California truly the Golden State. I'm fighting for a California for the People, not the Billionaires.

California's 194 billionaires hoard more wealth than 27 million of us. That's not an accident—it's a rigged system. We make California rich, but can't afford rent, medicine, or decent schools for our kids because billionaires extract the wealth we create.

Our socialist campaign demands guaranteed housing capped at 20% of income, free healthcare, free childcare and union jobs at minimum $30/hour with a guaranteed dignified retirement. Stop deportations, abolish ICE!

I'm fighting for socialism—a system where we working people have the political and economic power to meet our needs. Together we will end billionaire rule once and for all.

Vote Socialist! Vote leftunityslate.org. Register Peace & Freedom Party.

Candidate Statement: Satish Rao

Efficient, effective, and humane. That's the test.

Every policy helps some and hurts others, so discussion is necessary—and hard. Too often tribalism, power, and narrow incentives decide the outcome.

Education makes it plain. California has failed vulnerable students at a basic task: learning to read. Meanwhile, places we're taught to dismiss have done better.

The genius stroke? Words are made of letters—fundamentals, not magic.

Arithmetic is not a hate crime. Yet in California, basics are treated like villains and complexity like virtue: a thousand-page, state-approved physics book that's great for strong backs and publisher margins, but essentially unread.

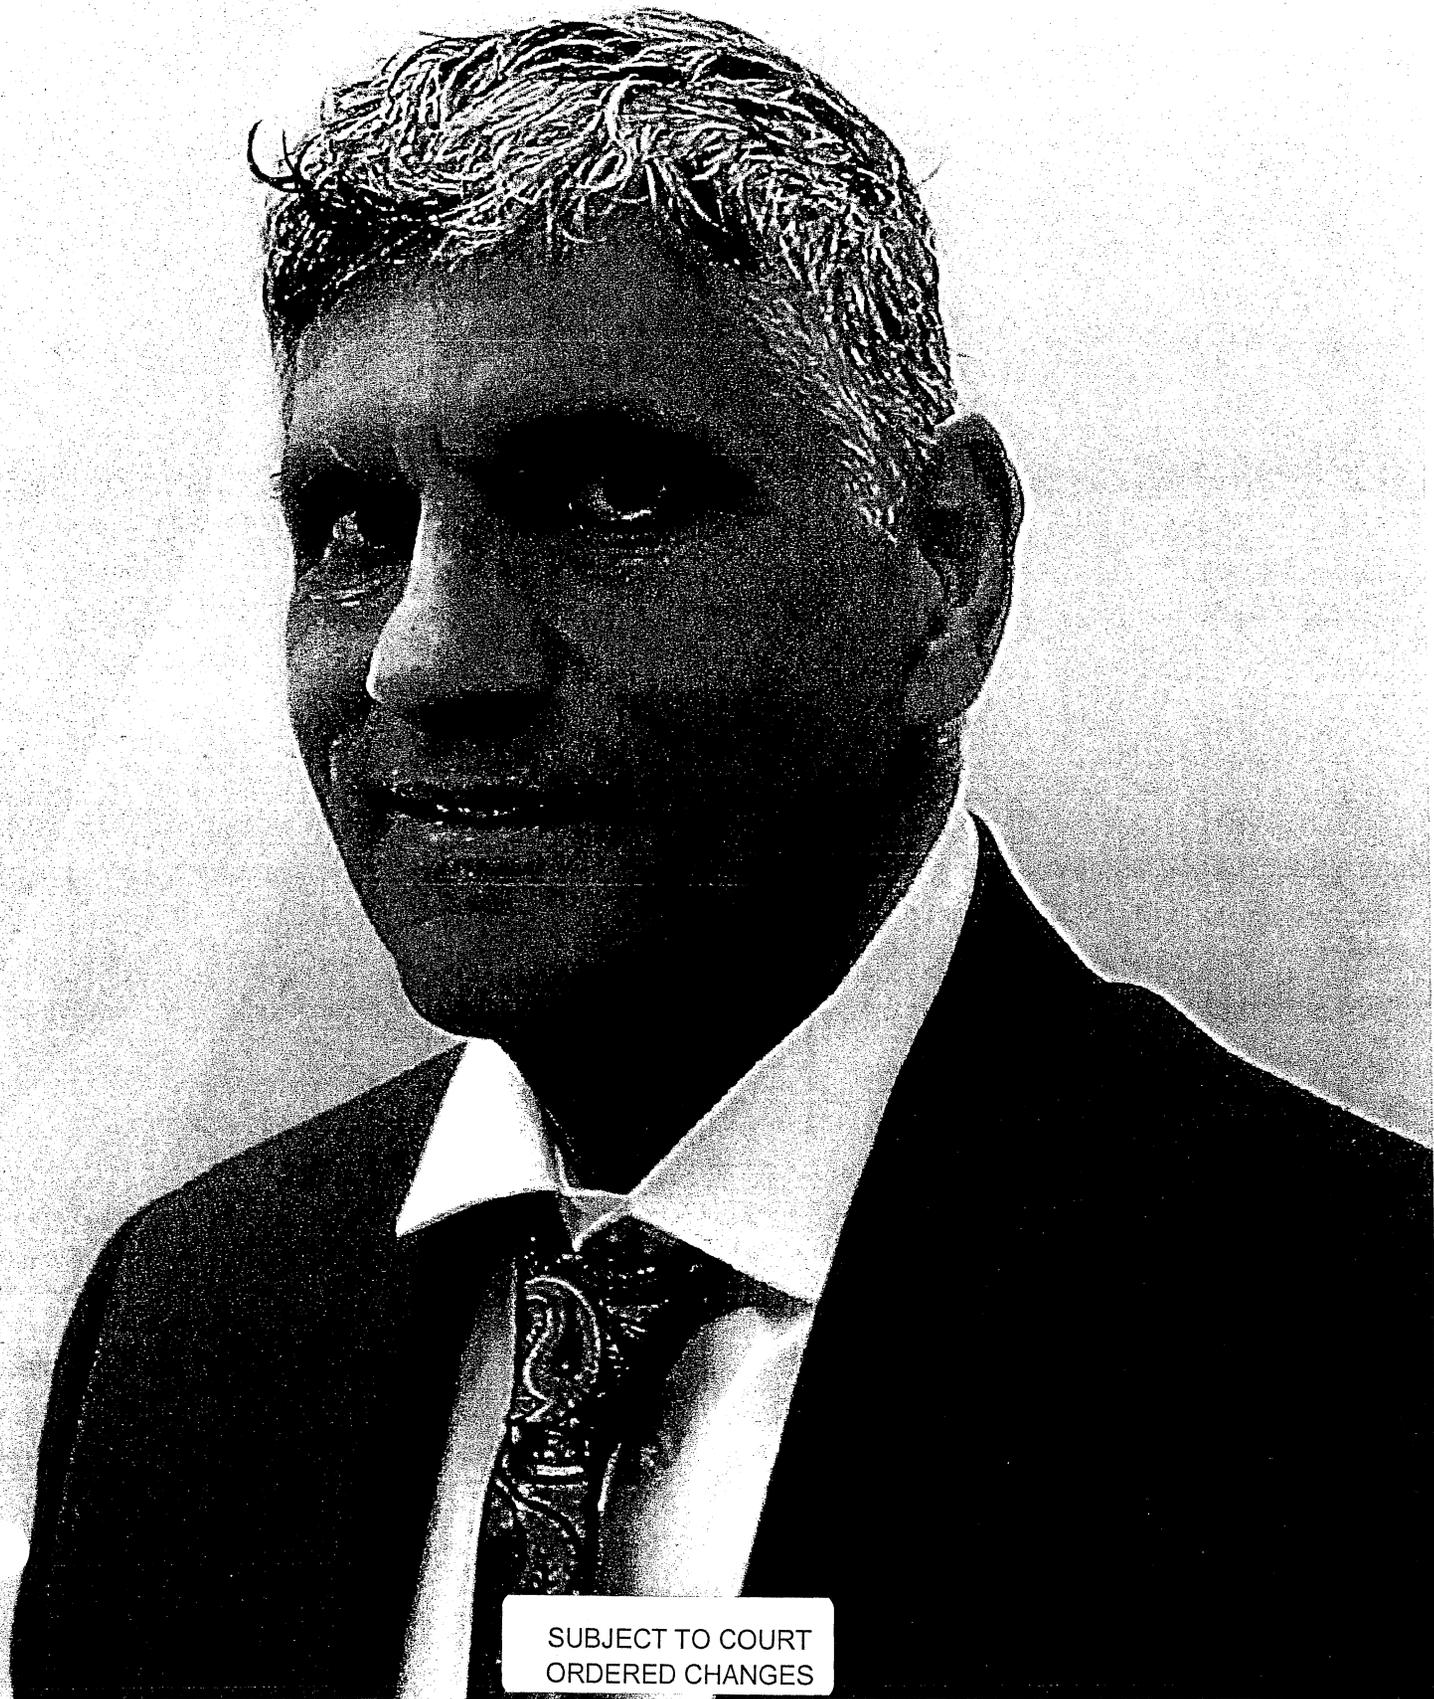

The people who oversaw failure still control the institutions. That's not a conspiracy; it's bureaucracy. In universities, power concentrates in administration, and budgets follow power. At the University of California, Berkeley—where I work—non-academic staff compensation alone runs north of $30,000 per student. That's before you pay a single instructor, professor, TA, tutor, reader, lab assistant, or researcher.

And it doesn't stop at bloat. In California, there is a regulation for every problem—and too often it fails to solve it while creating new ones.

Governor Newsom tries—hair always in place. Still, he governs in a dishonest system that rewards the loudest interests and the fanciful promises they sell.

California is rich in people, place, and position. Let's get out of our own way: do what works, stop what doesn't, and treat people with decency.

I am Dr. Randeep S Dhillon, an economist and finance professional, running for Governor of California to provide practical leadership focused on affordability, public safety, and long-term economic security.

California's challenges affect every community. Families face high living costs, farmers need reliable water, small businesses struggle with rising expenses, and neighborhoods want safety restored. These challenges require balanced, economically sound solutions guided by facts and accountability.

My professional background includes economics, finance, healthcare innovation, and large-scale operations. I believe government must be fiscally responsible, transparent, and focused on results. Financial stability strengthens families, supports communities, & restores confidence in institutions.

As Governor, I will protect California agriculture by ensuring fair, reliable, and affordable water, including consistent pricing across water districts so farmers can plan, invest, and produce. Rural communities must be treated as partners in California's future.

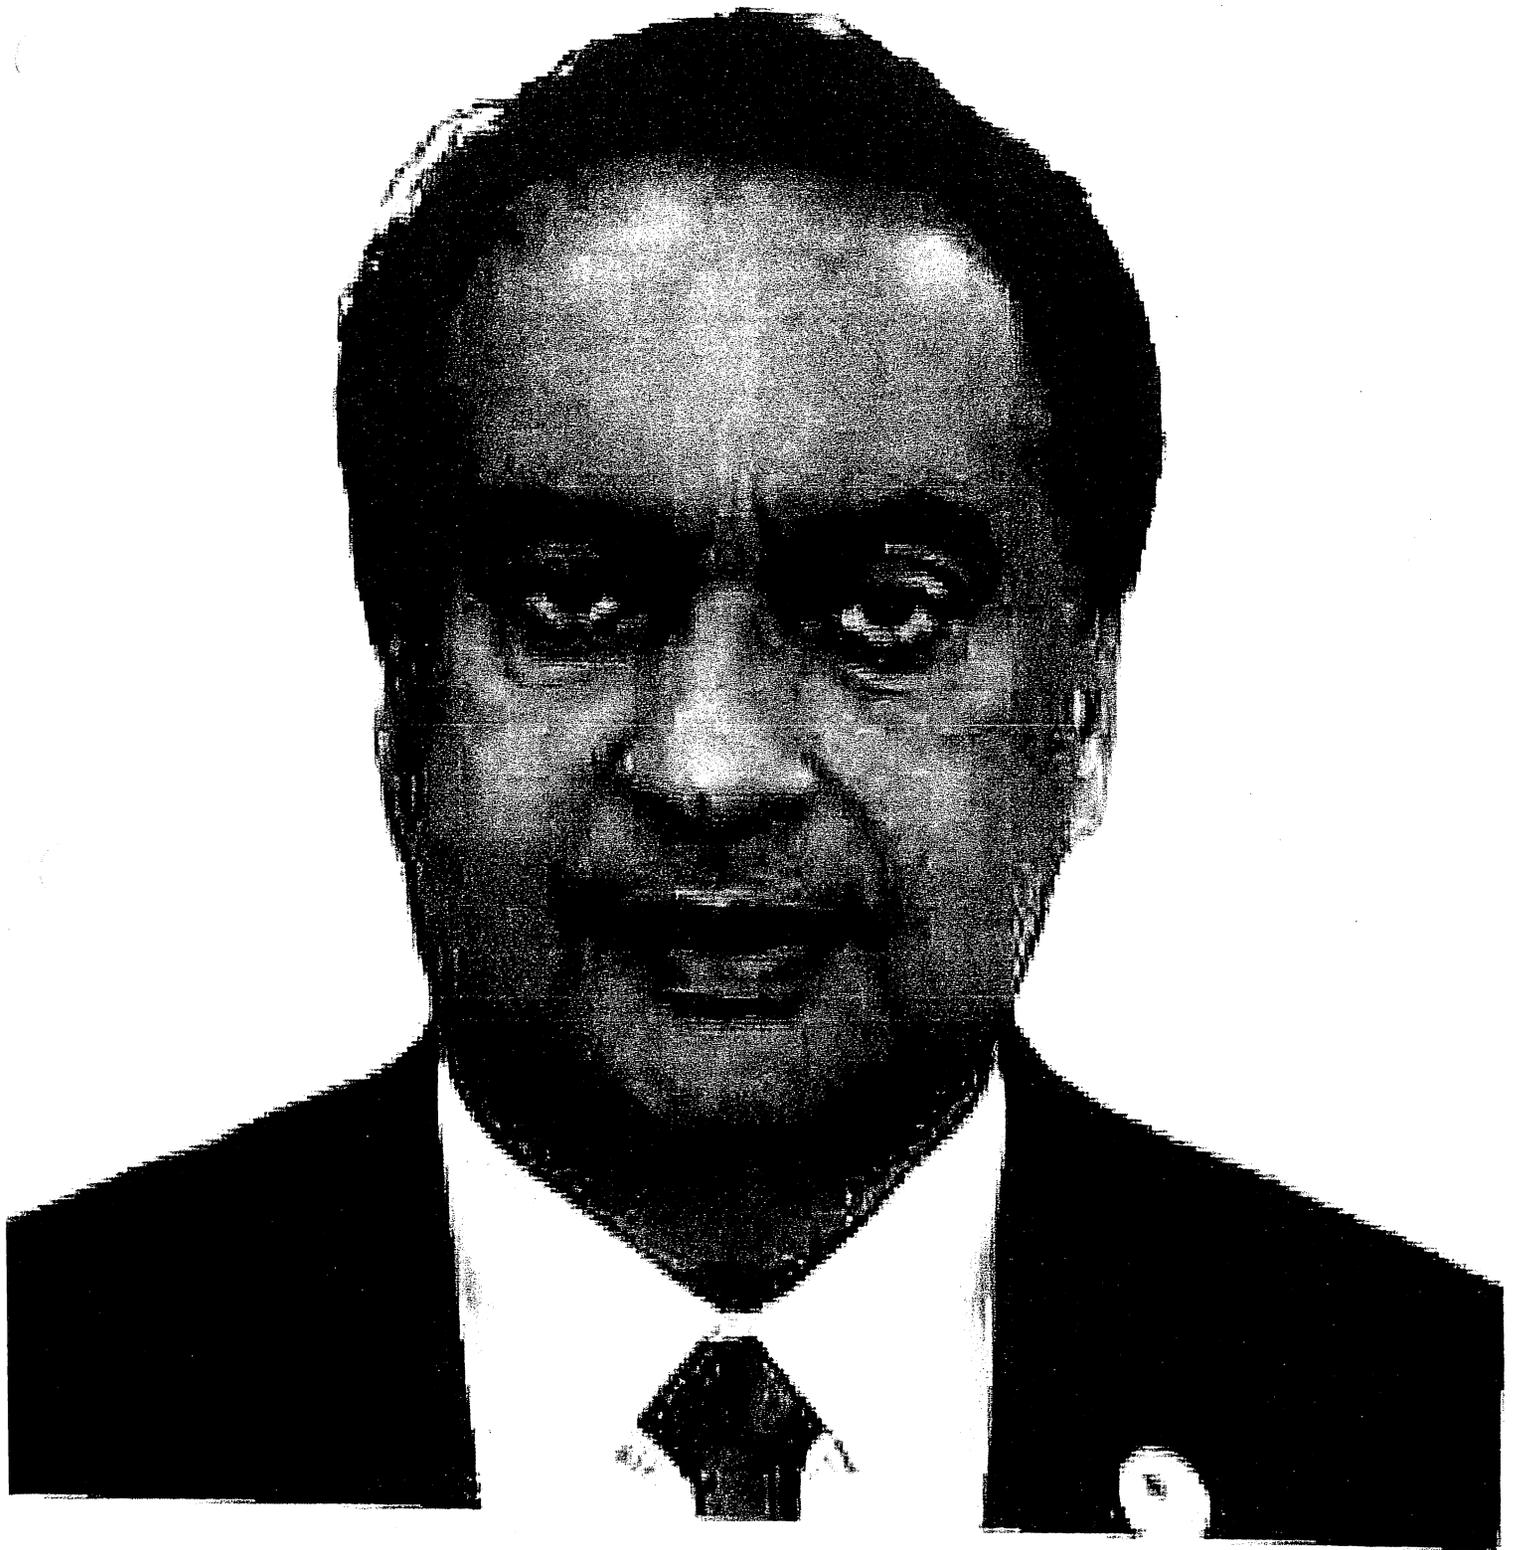

Energy affordability matters to households and businesses alike. I support responsible California crude oil production alongside renewable energy development to stabilize fuel costs, protect jobs, and reduce dependence on foreign energy.

California must also lead in technology. I will support California-owned operating systems, software, and hardware so innovation, jobs, and data remain here.

I will stand with small businesses by reducing regulations and expanding access to capital so entrepreneurs can grow and hire.

Public safety is fundamental. Shoplifting of any amount is a crime, and laws must be enforced fairly. I support women's economic advancement, solutions to veteran homelessness through housing and employment, and firm action against illegal drugs.

Keaton Garratt Dunsford | REPUBLICAN

Keaton Livermore (legal name change pending) runs as Progressive Republican for California Governor with transformational solutions: state digital currency funding guaranteed jobs, immigrant protection through both state and federal channels, and sales tax elimination making California affordable. The Livermore name carries California conservation legacy. Caroline Sealy Livermore protected Angel Island—Mount Livermore bears her name. Norman Livermore worked with Governor Reagan to preserve wilderness. This campaign extends that stewardship into economic innovation and social justice. Economic Transformation: Create constitutional CAL state currency (MMT & blockchain compatible) backed by real resources. Job Guarantee at $25-$35 per hour for every Californian who wants to work—scalable to meet demand, limited only by our collective will to serve. Eliminate sales tax like Oregon. Wealth tax credits reward investment in plant-based agriculture and enterprise. Immigrant Protection: Two-track approach. Track 1 uses California authority: state IDs, sanctuary benefits, protection. Track 2 negotiates WITH Washington: federal work permits, citizenship pathways. Progressive Republican positioning delivers both tracks where others can only resist. Compassionate California: Transform agriculture toward plant-based abundance while honoring farmers' livelihoods through transition support. Build renewable diesel vehicles (100+ MPG proven technology). Create 100 ecological sanctuary campgrounds—weather-proof sites with showers, security, Job Guarantee employment—for unhoused Californians. Technological Sovereignty: Replace proprietary government software with Grain OS. Transparent, secure, publicly auditable systems. Your data belongs to you. California deserves transformation rather than incrementalism. Republican governance negotiates results. Quiso cantar, cantar, para olvidar su vida verdadera de mentiras y recordar su mentirosa vida de verdades. —Octavio Paz www.KeatonLivermore.com | codeberg.org/keatonlivermore/california

NAME: LIVINGFORGOD ANDCOUNTRY DEMOTT

OCCUPATION: Logistics Professional / Chaplain

My Legal Name LivingForGod Means: Living A Life Reflecting The Good Character of Jesus Christ; it is my foundation, my operating system, and compass. As a chaplain it is my opinion that any success built on the foundation of deceit and corruption is like building a castle on the sand.

So when the storm screams against the windshield, I will not flinch! When it comes to the kind of turbulence that brings planes down, I will be the pilot who punches through the storm so the passengers (You the People) can breathe again.

As a successful business man I built Big Time Pest Control from the ground up, then sold it trading upper management to serve as a chaplain, in the trenches, kneeling hand-in-hand, with the forgotten, and the broken.

My heritage is a map of U.S. American grit, stretching from Samuel Fuller, the Doctor of the Mayflower to the lightning rod of Ben Franklin. But I'm not looking back—I'm looking forward to all of California, where people are feeling abandoned and betrayed!

I have a plan to STOP illegal ICE operations; and a chaplain's heart to remember who the system serves. I'm 100% against the miles-driven tax. To Make California Great Again, PROTECT THE PEOPLE!

As the old parties are debating the heat over who bought the matches, while the dumpster fire burns; I'm handing you a fire extinguisher!
