The Statement of Vote for the November 2, 2010, General Election was originally certified on December 10, 2010, as required by law. This updated Statement of Vote includes recertified vote totals from Solano County received December 31, 2010. While no election outcomes were affected by the recertification, all vote counts have changed slightly for statewide contests and district contests that include part of Solano County. Numbers for initiative, referendum, and political party qualifications were also adjusted.
