SPECIAL ELECTION PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

I, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Governor of the State of California, pursuant to Article II, Section 8(c) of the California Constitution, and Section 12000 of the Elections Code, do hereby proclaim and order that a statewide special election shall be held on the 8th day of November, 2005, to submit to the voters the following qualified initiative measures:

1067. Termination of Minor's Pregnancy. Waiting Period and Parental Notification. Initiative Constitutional Amendment.

1084. Public Employee Union Dues. Required Employee Consent for Political Contributions. Initiative Statute.

1088. Public School Teachers. Waiting Period for Permanent Status. Dismissal. Initiative Statute.

1072. Reapportionment. Initiative Constitutional Amendment.

1131. School Funding. State Spending. Initiative Constitutional Amendment.

The following initiative measures are currently before the Secretary of State pending the verification of petition signatures. A number of these measures may qualify for the special election to be held November 8, 2005:

1106. Prescription Drug Discounts. State-Negotiated Rebates. Initiative Statute.

1114. Electric Service Providers. Regulation. Initiative Statute.

1129. Prescription Drugs. Discounts. Initiative Statute.

I believe the prompt consideration of Measure 1131, State Spending, by the voters is vital to the ability of the people to control their destiny and decide matters of immediate importance to California's future.

Although steadily improving, California's budget is still in crisis. To solve the State budget's continuing structural deficit, we must consider reform of the way the government spends its money. Measure 1131, State Spending, will allow voters to consider a new approach to state spending that overrides automatic formulas.

The funds necessary to pay the claims of local agencies arising from their costs incurred to conduct the special statewide election shall be included in the State Budget for the 2006-2007 fiscal year, or in an earlier enacted claims bill.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 13th day of June, 2005.

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER
Governor of California
