Any registered voter can go to a county elections office in person to request and receive a vote-by-mail ballot. Vote-by-mail ballots will be available by May 7 and through Election Day.

Some counties offer early voting at a few locations before Election Day. For a list of these early voting locations go to

California Voter’s Choice Act
The California Voter’s Choice Act is a new law passed in 2016 that will modernize elections in California by allowing counties to conduct elections under a new model which provides greater flexibility and convenience for voters. Go online for more info: http://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/voters-choice-act

This new election model allows voters to choose how, when, and where to cast their ballot by:

• Mailing every voter a ballot
• Expanding in-person early voting
• Allowing voters to cast a ballot at any vote center within their county

Vote at the Polls on Election Day
Polls are open on Election Day: June 5 from 7:00 a.m., to 8:00 p.m.

The location of your polling place is printed on the back page of the county Voter Information Guide your county elections official mailed to you.

You can also find your polling place:
www.voterstatus.sos.ca.gov
By calling (800) 345-VOTE (8683)
Online at www.sos.ca.gov/elections/polling-place
By texting Vote to GOVOTE (468683)

Conditional Voter Registration
During the period of 14 days prior to Election Day through and including Election Day, an individual can go to the office of their county elections official to conditionally register to vote and vote a provisional ballot. This process is called Conditional Voter Registration (CVR).

My Voter Status
Check your registration status online at voterstatus.sos.ca.gov. Some county elections officials also allow you to check the status of your voter registration through their website, by telephone, or both.

Provisional Ballot
If your name is not on the voter list at your polling place, you have the right to vote a provisional ballot.

What is a provisional ballot?
A provisional ballot is a regular ballot that is placed in a special envelope prior to being put in the ballot box.
Who casts a provisional ballot?
Provisional ballots are ballots cast by voters who:

- Believe they are registered to vote even though their names are not on the official voter registration list at the polling place.
- Vote by mail but did not receive their ballot or do not have their ballot with them, and instead want to vote at a polling place.

What happens after you cast a provisional ballot?
Your provisional ballot will be counted after elections when officials have confirmed that you are registered to vote in that county and you did not already vote in that election.
You may vote a provisional ballot at any polling place in the county in which you are registered to vote, however, only the elections contests you are eligible to vote for will be counted.

Depending on the volume of these types of ballots, it takes up to 30 days for county elections officials to verify voter records and determine if ballots have been cast by eligible voters.

How can you check the status of your provisional ballot?
Every voter who casts a provisional ballot has the right to find out from their county elections official if the ballot was counted and, if not, the reason why it was not counted. You can also visit (voterstatus.sos.ca.gov) to get this information.

Ballot Measures
For the Primary Election only the Legislature has the ability to place constitutional amendments, bond measures, advisory questions, and proposed changes in law on the ballot.

A statewide ballot measure can be approved by a majority vote of the people. Certain local ballot measures require approval by a 55% or a two-thirds vote of the electorate.

Full Text of Proposed Laws
The full text of proposed laws can be found online at voterguide.sos.ca.gov. Copies of the full text may also be requested at no cost by contacting the Secretary of State at (800) 345-VOTE (8683) or by email to vigfeedback@sos.ca.gov.

Can a voter change their vote after they cast their ballot?
Polling Place Voters: Voters who vote a ballot at the polling place are entitled to a replacement ballot if they make a mistake on their ballot. They must surrender the original ballot to a poll worker who will void it and issue a new one. Once a ballot has been placed in the ballot box, it is considered cast and cannot be changed.

Vote-By-Mail Voters: If a vote-by-mail voter makes a mistake before their ballot has been cast, the voter can surrender their vote-by-mail ballot at the polls (or at their county elections office on or before Election Day) and receive another ballot. If the voter does not have their vote-by-mail ballot to return, the voter may be issued a provisional ballot.

A vote-by-mail ballot is considered cast once it is mailed to or dropped off with the elections official, dropped off at a polling place, or placed in a drop box. Once a vote-by-mail ballot is cast, a voter cannot change their vote or request a new ballot.

What is the deadline to submit a vote-by-mail ballot?
In Person: A voter may personally deliver their vote-by-mail ballot to a polling place or a drop box by the close of polls on June 5.

By Mail: A voter’s vote-by-mail ballot must be postmarked on or before June 5 and received by their county elections office no later than June 8.

About Candidates

How are primary elections conducted in California?
All candidates for voter-nominated offices are listed on one ballot and only the top two vote-getters in the primary election - regardless of party preference - move on to the general election. Voter-nominated offices are state constitutional offices, state legislative offices, U.S. senate, and U.S. congressional offices. A write-in candidate will only move on to the general election if the candidate is one of the top two vote-getters in the primary election.

Is It Required to Vote on Every Contest or Proposition on The Ballot?
No, it is not required to vote on every contest or proposition on your ballot. Your ballot will not be invalidated if you do not vote on every contest or every proposition.
What do party preferences mean when listed with candidates’ names on the ballot? What are the qualified political parties and abbreviations of those party names?
A candidate must indicate his or her preference or lack of preference for a qualified political party. If the candidate has a qualified political party preference, that qualified political party will be indicated by the candidate’s name on the ballot. If a candidate does not have a qualified political party preference, “Party Preference: None” will be indicated by the candidate’s name on the ballot. Similarly, voters who do not have a party preference are known as having “no party preference” or as “NPP” voters.

Abbreviations for the qualified political parties are:
- DEM = Democratic Party
- REP = Republican Party
- AI = American Independent Party
- GRN = Green Party
- LIB = Libertarian Party
- PF = Peace & Freedom Party

Who is running for office?
The Secretary of State’s Certified List of Candidates (PDF) includes all candidates for States Senator, United States House of Representatives, State Senator, and State Assemblymember who are up for election.

County elections officials provide certified lists of candidates for local contests such as mayor and sheriff.

Information about candidates for United States Senator is available in the Secretary of State’s Voter Information Guide.

Information about candidates for state constitutional offices and United States House of Representatives, State Senator, and State Assemblymember are available through county elections offices and your county’s Voter Information Guide.

About Election Results Website
Will the unofficial election results change after Election Night? When will all of the election results be final?
Yes, election results will change throughout the canvass period as vote-by-mail ballots, provisional ballots, and other ballots are processed. Depending on the volume of these types of ballots, it may take up to 30 days for county elections officials to verify voter records and determine if ballots have been cast by eligible voters. The frequency of updated results will vary based on the size of each county and the process each county elections office uses to tally and report votes.

County elections officials must report their final results to the Secretary of State by July 5. The Secretary of State will certify the results by July 13.

What qualifies as “a close contest” for purposes of the Secretary of State’s election results website?
For people interested in watching contests with particularly tight margins, the Secretary of State’s website includes a “close contest” feature. As election results come in, this page will list all contests in which there is less than a two percent difference between first and second place for candidates or between “yes” and “no” votes for ballot measures. Election results will change throughout the 30-day canvass period as vote-by-mail ballots, provisional ballots, and other ballots are tallied.

On Election Night: Why have some counties not reported any results immediately after the polls close?
State law requires county elections officials to send their first batch of results to the Secretary of State’s office no more than two hours after they begin tallying votes after polls close on Election Day. Each of the 58 county elections offices processes ballots differently, and the distances poll workers must travel from polling places to county offices vary greatly. County elections officials continue to report results periodically on Election Night until all precinct vote totals have been reported. County elections officials will continue to count ballots for up to 30 days after Election Day.

On Election Night: Why do some counties show no precincts have reported, yet some votes have been counted?
The first election results are typically ballots received before Election Day. Military and overseas voters may cast ballots up to 60 days before Election Day and vote-by-mail voters may begin voting 29 days before Election Day. County elections officials may begin opening vote-by-mail ballot envelopes up to ten business days before Election Day, but those results cannot be accessed or shared with the public until all polls close on Election Day. Many county elections officials choose to tally and report these early voted ballots before results come in from precincts, which are sometimes far away from county headquarters. Early voted ballots simply appear as raw vote totals because, in this initial stage, the ballots are not attributed to individual precincts.
On Election Night: Why do some contests show a high percentage of precincts reporting, yet the number of votes continues to change?

Some counties will show an entire precinct as having reported even if only one ballot from that precinct has been counted. This is why the website specifically notes the data is from precincts “partially reporting.”

Once a county submits its final ballot-count report for Election Night, “SF” for Semi-Final will be noted in the Report Type column. Election Night results can be viewed as a snapshot in time here.

Election results will change throughout the 30-day canvass period as vote-by-mail ballots, provisional ballots, and other ballots are tallied.

When are vote-by-mail ballots counted?

Vote-by-mail ballots that are received by county elections officials before Election Day are typically counted on Election Day. Many more vote-by-mail ballots are dropped off at polling places, drop box locations, vote centers, or arrive at county elections offices on Election Day. A vote-by-mail ballot is to be counted if received in the county elections office no later than three days after the election and postmarked on or before Election Day. Depending on the volume of these types of ballots, it takes up to 30 days for county elections officials to verify voter records and determine if ballots have been cast by eligible voters. The frequency of updated results will vary based on the size of each county and the process each local elections office uses to tally and report votes.

All vote-by-mail ballots that county elections officials determine to be valid and cast by eligible voters are counted and included in the official election results, which will be published by the Secretary of State by July 13.
