

Justices of the California Supreme Court
November 6, 2018, General Election

An election will be held on November 6, 2018. The justices listed in bold font on the following page will stand for election. If this election coincides with the expiration of their term, the election will be for a full term of twelve years. If not standing for a full term, the term for which they are running is noted. Cal. Const., art. VI, § 16(a)

If their term is expiring, a justice of the California Supreme Court may file a declaration of candidacy to succeed to the office presently held by the justice. This declaration must be filed between July 17, 2018, and August 15, 2018. If the declaration is not filed, the Governor, before September 16, 2018, shall nominate a candidate. At the next general election, only the candidate so declared or nominated may appear on the ballot. Cal. Const., art. VI, § 16(d)(1); § 8201¹

The declaration of candidacy may be in the form of a letter, may be on office stationery, must say that the justice is a candidate to succeed him or herself, and must be signed by the justice. Unless instructed otherwise, the Secretary of State will certify the candidate's name as it is signed on the declaration of candidacy. In addition to filing the declaration, each justice must pay a nonrefundable filing fee of two percent of the first year's salary for the office. §§ 8103(a)(1), 8105(a)

In lieu of paying the filing fee, a justice may submit a petition containing signatures of 7,000 registered voters. The signatures submitted may cover all or a prorated portion of the filing fee. That portion of the filing fee not covered by signatures must be paid in full before the declaration of candidacy may be filed. §§ 8105(a), 8106(a)(3) & (b)(3)

A justice may obtain the petition for signatures in lieu of the filing fee from the appropriate county elections official from May 18, 2018, through July 16, 2018. The last day to file these petitions is July 16, 2018. Any registered voter may sign such a petition for any and for each justice. If the petition is circulated in more than one county, the justice shall submit the signatures to the county elections official of the county in which the petition was circulated. § 8106(b)(1), (b)(3) & (b)(4)

NOTE: If a justice who will appear on the ballot does not receive any campaign contributions and the only expenditure made will be the justice's personal funds for the filing fee, then the justice is not required to file Fair Political Practices Commission (FPPC) Forms 410 and 501. However, any justice who will appear on the ballot must file campaign disclosure statements. For information about the campaign disclosure provisions, call the FPPC at (866) 275-3772 or the Secretary of State's Political Reform Division at (916) 653-6224.
