BALLOT LABEL

CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO REPRODUCTIVE FREEDOM, LEGISLATIVE

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. Amends California Constitution to expressly include an individual’s fundamental right to reproductive freedom, which includes the fundamental right to choose to have an abortion and the fundamental right to choose or refuse contraceptives. This amendment does not narrow or limit the existing rights to privacy and equal protection under the California Constitution. Fiscal Impact: No direct fiscal effect because reproductive rights already are protected by state law.
Proposition 1
Constitutional Right to Reproductive Freedom. Legislative Constitutional Amendment.

Yes/No Statement
A YES vote on this measure means: The California Constitution would be changed to expressly include existing rights to reproductive freedom—such as the right to choose whether or not to have an abortion and use contraceptives.

A NO vote on this measure means: The California Constitution would not be changed to expressly include existing rights to reproductive freedom. These rights, however, would continue to exist under other state law.

Elections Code section 9600

SUBJECT TO COURT ORDERED CHANGES
Proposition 1 is an extreme law that allows late-term abortions at taxpayer expense up to the moment of birth — even if the baby is healthy and the mother's health is not threatened. Current California law already guarantees a woman's right to choose, making this extreme and costly proposal unnecessary.
